How to Obtain an Absentee Ballot:

Any registered voter who cannot vote in person may apply directly to his county auditor or department of elections for an absentee ballot. Any signed request containing the necessary information will be honored. For your convenience, an application is reproduced below. The addresses of the auditors or departments of election are also listed below. In order to be certain that the voters' application is authentic, the election laws require that the signature on the application be verified by comparison with the signature on the voter's permanent registration record. For this reason, if a husband and wife both wish to vote by absentee ballot, separate, signed requests should be submitted. In order to be counted, an absentee ballot must be voted and postmarked no later than the day of the election. For this reason, sufficient time must be allowed for an exchange of correspondence with the county auditor or department of elections.

Official Ballot Title:
Shall places where obscene films are publicly and regularly shown or obscene publications a principal stock in trade be prohibited?

The Law as it now exists:
At the present time there are certain criminal offenses such as prostitution, illegal gambling, fighting in public, committing a breach of the peace in public, maintaining a house of ill-repute and maintaining a house where illegal gambling is carried on which are subject to prosecution by appropriate authorities. None of these

Statement for

AIMED AT CORRUPTION
335 hits hard at places that specialize in films, magazines and books that depict explicit sex acts between adults, adults and children, and even humans and animals. This material affects human beings and pollutes all of society. It leads individuals to commit crimes of violence, abduction, incest, rape, and sexual abuse of children.

RIDICULE WILL BE USED BY OPPONENTS
335 is designed to stamp out only outright filth and perversion. It is not prudish; it does not attack works of art, literature or science. Don't believe the words of ridicule that will be used against this important law.

RIGHTS OF DECENT CITIZENS COME FIRST
335 in no way violates the freedom of speech amendment to our Constitution. The U.S. Supreme Court has held repeatedly that pornography is not protected by the First Amendment. This is not a problem of "consenting adults." Children, families and legitimate businesses are all being hurt; and the taxpayer is footing the bill for increased crime.

BIG MONEY ATTRACTS ORGANIZED CRIME
Organized crime is involved in the pornography racket. Police reports say that organized crime exclusively profits from the pornography industry. It takes a tough law to run it out of the State. 335 is patterned after an Ohio law which has been upheld in courts as constitutional. It is properly written and will hold up in the Supreme Court.

BIG MONEY IS BEING MADE IN HARD-CORE PORNOGRAPHY! BIG MONEY WILL BE SPENT TO KEEP HARD-CORE PORNOGRAPHY! KEEP PORNOGRAPHY OUT OF YOUR NEIGHBORHOOD! VOTE YES ON 335! HARD-CORE PORNOGRAPHY MUST GO!

Rebuttal of Statement against

OPPOSITION'S STATEMENTS FALSE
The opposition's statements are false and misleading. The Initiative can be used only against places that specialize in hard-core pornography. Court hearings are required before judges can act. Many procedural safeguards are included.

INITIATIVE IS TESTED AND CONSTITUTIONAL
The definition of hard-core pornography is taken directly from the United States Supreme Court. The Initiative has been repeatedly tested and proven constitutional. Organized crime has infiltrated this horrible business. Boycotts won't work. Good, tough laws like 335 are needed.

Voters' Pamphlet Statement Prepared by:
DON T. TALLEY, State Senator; MARGARET HURLEY, State Representative; E. C. "EV" RENAS, Business Executive.
Advisory Committee: CHARLES R. LONERGAN, Attorney; LESTER R. GREENWOOD, C.P.A.; JOHN HEMPLEMANN, Attorney; DOUGLAS G. WOODWARD, Business Executive; DONALD BROCKETT, Spokane County Prosecuting Attorney.
offenses, however, other than maintaining a house of lewdness, assignation or prostitution, is considered to be a legal nuisance. They cannot, therefore, be abated or enjoined in a civil action.

The effect of Initiative 335, if approved into Law:

This initiative would expand the number of criminal offenses which would also be subject to abatement and injunction. The initiative defines as moral nuisances such activities as obscenity, acts of lewdness, assignation, prostitution, illegal gambling in public places, drunkenness, fighting and breaches of the peace in public or private places. Such offenses would also become subject to actions for abatement and injunction as moral nuisances in actions brought by either the Attorney General, Prosecuting Attorney, city attorney, city prosecutor, or any citizen of the county in which the activity takes place. The initiative provides for forfeiture of all real and personal property, including money, which is involved in a moral nuisance.

In the case of an action to abate or enjoin a moral nuisance brought by a citizen of the county, that individual may recover his or her reasonable attorney's fees and costs.

NOTE: The ballot title and explanatory statement were written by the Attorney General as required by state law. The complete text of Initiative Measure 335 begins on Page 24.

Statement against

WHAT IT DOES

This initiative would let any individual who can post a bond close his neighborhood grocery or newstand, subject to a hearing afterward! The 1st Amendment is supposed to protect individuals' liberty from being taken away by the majority. This initiative reverses that, and lets an individual or small group take away the rights of the majority!

It does this by saying that any business can be closed if "a principal part of its business" (more than 5%) is "lewd publications". It then defines lewd so broadly any picture of a nude person could be included, then goes on to say that "lewdness" includes all of its common law meanings. Those meanings have included anything "grossly vulgar, unbecoming, unseemly, unfit to be seen or heard, or that which violates the proprieties of language or behavior". In other words, just about anything somebody might object to.

Under that extremely broad and unconstitutional definition a person or business could be subjected to severe penalties and confiscation of property, by a very unfair process which assures no hearing until after the confiscation takes place.

SOME OF THE WORST RESULTS

Historically, prohibition creates black markets and enhances the influence and profits of organized crime. It creates demand for an illegal product, and the people with guns and a willingness to flout the law muscle in and take over the distribution.

WHAT SHOULD WE DO?

If you don't like pornography, boycott it. Let it die of boredom, as it is doing already.

Rebuttal of Statement for

It is difficult to rebut a proponent's statement which fails to discuss the terms of the initiative. The proponents say that "335 is designed to stamp out only outright filth and perversion." Arguably that is an excellent intention, but that is not what the initiative does. It could close a grocery store! It is not limited to publications which depict sexual acts, as required by the Supreme Court. Proponent's assertions are simply untrue.

Official Ballot Title:

Shall most food products be exempt from state and local retail sales and use taxes, effective July 1, 1978?

The Law as it now exists:

The State of Washington levies a sales tax on the retail sale of tangible personal property. The state rate for the sales tax is four and six-tenths percent. Local governments have an option to impose an additional sales tax of up to eight-tenths of one percent. The sale of certain tangible personal property is exempt from all sales taxes. Food products are not among those exemptions.

Statement for

REPEAL THE SALES TAX ON FOOD

The sales tax on food is an unfair, regressive tax. The food tax is hardest on senior citizens on fixed incomes, families on low incomes and large working families. These are the families hardest hit by inflation, the people most in need of tax relief.

THE FOOD TAX IS UNFAIR

Groceries are one of the largest monthly expenses, especially for individuals and families on tight budgets. Most moderate and low income families spend up to 40% of their income for food, leaving little for housing, transportation and other necessities.

Repeal of the sales tax on food could buy 17 to 19 days of food for these families, per year.

WASHINGTON’S TAX SYSTEM IS UNFAIR

National tax experts say Washington has the dubious distinction of having the country’s most unfair tax system. Repeal of the food tax will begin to make our taxes fairer for all residents of the state.

THE LEGISLATURE HAS FAILED TO ACT

For the last three decades, the state’s labor unions, churches, political organizations and the press have called for an end to the food tax. Governors Rosellini, Evans, Ray and most legislators have stated their opposition to the food tax. Yet the food tax not only remains, but also increases.

Since the food tax was first enacted, the Legislature has increased the tax seven times.

VOTE YES ON 345

The issue is simple: when you have an unfair tax, get rid of it. Vote yes on 345.

Rebuttal of Statement against

It is irresponsible to maintain the unfair tax on food. The time to repeal the sales tax on food is now.

Opponents of Initiative 345 cry that government services will be drastically cut, and that new taxes will be required. In fact, state government has a surplus currently estimated at 120 million dollars.

We can afford to eliminate this tax. Let’s not accept any more weak excuses for an unfair tax. Let’s vote for repeal.

Voters' Pamphlet Statement Prepared by:

J. LINSEY HINAND, Coalition Opposing the Sales Tax on Food; AL WILLIAMS, State Representative; ELLEN WATERS, King County Elder Citizens Coalition.

Advisory Committee: BEA TODHUNTER, Washington Association of Community Action Agencies; GARY GRANT, State Senator; Most Reverend BERNARD J. TOPEL; Catholic Bishop of Seattle; RICARDO R. GARCIA, Northwest Rural Opportunities; SAM SMITH, Seattle City Councilman.
The effect of Initiative 345, if approved into Law:

The initiative would create a new exemption for "food products" from sales tax. The exemption would not apply, however, to food products prepared and served to patrons of restaurants, drive-ins and similar businesses. It is estimated that under this initiative total state and local sales tax revenues would be reduced by $189.6 million in the fiscal year July 1, 1978 to June 30, 1979.

NOTE: The ballot title and explanatory statement were written by the Attorney General as required by state law. The complete text of Initiative Measure 345 begins on Page 27.

Statement against

INITIATIVE 345 FAILS TO FACE THE CONSEQUENCES

Eliminating a tax without providing for replacement of the lost revenue is not a responsible choice. Most people agree that exempting food purchases from the sales tax would be a desirable improvement to Washington’s tax system... but the individuals this measure is supposed to help may suffer more under the resulting alternatives.

ALTERNATIVE—REDUCED STATE SPENDING

Schools, institutions and public assistance account for 80% of State spending... the greatest reductions, by necessity, will come in these areas. Since fixed obligations, such as bond redemption, pension funding and the court system, cannot be reduced:

- Cuts of almost 25% could be required in all other State services;
- State funding of common schools would be reduced and the dependence upon special property tax levies would be increased;
- Even greater cuts will have to be made in the remaining State programs such as institutions and public assistance if the Supreme Court requires full funding of public schools in a case which is now before the Court for determination.

ALTERNATIVE—INCREASED TAXES

The magnitude of the revenue loss would require tax increases such as the following in order to maintain existing services:

- Increase the State sales tax on all other items by 1 cent;
- Extend the sales tax to services, including legal, medical and dental, plus a 10% increase in business taxes;
- Enact personal and corporate income taxes.

The better choice

Vote NO on Initiative 345. Seek and support a balanced, reasonable and responsible program of State taxation and spending.

Rebuttal of Statement for

WHO BENEFITS? WHO GETS HURT? Although both high and low income families pay sales taxes on food, Initiative 345 gives greater tax relief to higher income groups. They will pay even less of their share of state services and would be less affected by possible budget cuts.

All recent legislatures have stated opposition to food taxes; responsible alternatives were presented to the public in 1970 and 1973 which would not have hurt low income families.

Initiative Measure 348
TO THE PEOPLE

Official Ballot Title:
Shall the new variable motor vehicle fuel tax law be repealed and the previous tax and distribution formula be reinstated?

The Law as it now exists:
The present law imposes an 11 cents per gallon tax on gasoline and other motor vehicle fuels. The tax revenues are used exclusively for highway purposes, including state highways and ferries, county roads and city streets. After January 1, 1978, the tax will fluctuate between 9 cents per gallon and 12 cents per gallon with changes occurring not more often than once every six months. The exact

Statement for

REGRESSIVE
The variable gas tax will seek its highest level as inflation increases. It will go down if and when the price of motor vehicle fuels decreases; it is anticipated it will increase to 12¢ per gallon on January 1, 1978. That 3¢ per gallon will represent a 33 1/3% increase for one year.

WRONG TIME—WRONG KIND—WRONG PRODUCT
The Federal Government is planning an energy policy which will affect the pricing and tax structure on petroleum products, substantially increasing the price of motor vehicle fuels. Applying a variable tax to increasing prices fuels inflation. The Federal Energy Program’s objective is to encourage the conservation of petroleum products. The variable gas tax permits a higher tax as consumption decreases, thereby discouraging the incentive to conserve.

UNNECESSARY
The 18th Amendment of the State Constitution was intended to put motor vehicle fuel taxes and license fees into a special fund to be used exclusively for highway purposes. This has become distorted into “highway related” purposes; now the funds for highway maintenance and construction are seriously limited. Construction is one of the most basic of highway purposes. The State of Oregon has a gas tax of 7¢ per gallon. The Interstate highway is virtually complete in Oregon and we are still building. The true purpose of this tax is not for highways, it is to be used to replace “highway purpose” funds diverted to other uses.

CHRONOLOGY OF MOTOR VEHICLE FUEL TAX
1935 - 5.0¢
1949 - 6.5¢
1961 - 7.5¢
1967 - 9.0¢
1977 - 11.0¢
1978 - 12.0¢
1979 - ?

Get your 2¢ worth, vote yes on Initiative 348.

Rebuttal of Statement against
Highway bureaucrats can’t justify the doubling of revenues in the period between 1966 and 1976. A “yes” vote for Initiative 348 permits collection of adequate funds for highway construction and maintenance. At the same time, 348 requires the highway administrators to more effectively use the taxpayers’ money.
You have no guarantee which projects will be funded with your energy tax dollars. Let the Highway Department and the Legislators live within the present budget! Vote yes!

Voters’ Pamphlet Statement Prepared by:
HARLEY H. HOPPE, Responsible and Organized Approach to State Taxes (R.O.A.S.T.); MARGARET HURLEY, State Representative.
Advisory Committee: ROBERT BEEZER, Attorney; JENNINGS FELIX, Attorney; ORVILLE ARMSTRONG, Overtaxed, Inc.; BETTY SMITH; DUKE HOUGHTON amount of the tax will be calculated as a percentage of the average retail price of fuel subject to a ceiling based upon legislative appropriations for highway purposes. Because of this ceiling, higher consumption of fuel may cause a reduction in the tax per gallon. In no case, however, can the tax be less than 9 cents per gallon nor more than 12 cents.

In the year ending June 30, 1977, each cent of tax on motor vehicle fuels produced approximately twenty million dollars in revenues. The present law authorizes the sale of a sixty million dollar bond issue to pay the cost of new county and city arterial construction and earmarks a portion of the increased revenues from the tax to repay these bonds. Forty-five million dollars from the sale of these bonds will be used for high priority county and city arterial construction in urban areas. Fifteen million dollars of the bond issue will be used for arterial street construction in smaller cities and towns outside of urban areas.

The effect of Initiative 348, if approved into Law:

The tax would revert to the rate of 9 cents per gallon established in 1967. The bond program for construction of county and city arterial roads and streets would be repealed.

NOTE: The ballot title and explanatory statement were written by the Attorney General as required by state law. The complete text of Initiative Measure 348 begins on Page 30.

Statement against

We urge you to say ‘NO’ to 348. A vote for 348 is a vote for more traffic fatalities, congestion, and rough roads, along with poorer public transportation and a weaker economy.

FIRST INCREASE IN TEN YEARS

Despite spiraling inflation, there's been no gas tax increase since 1967. Legislators enacted the Variable Tax because revenues from the old 9¢-a-gallon rate clearly were inadequate to support the wide range of transportation services the tax must fund.

Unlike most states, your gas-tax dollars also help fund city and county roads and bridges, the State Patrol, the ferry system, transit facilities and park roads — in addition to state highway construction and maintenance.

IS IT WORTH A TANK OF GAS?

The added 2¢ tax, which motorists have paid since July, costs the average motorist about $13 a year. Is it worth the cost of a tank of gas to:

- Help make overdue repairs on city, county and state roadways and bridges?
- Start more than 200 new street and highway projects to make travel safer for pedestrians and drivers alike?
- Complete missing links in an Interstate highway system that will total only about 1% of the state’s roadways, carry 25% of the traffic, and be four times as safe as other roads?
- Prevent cutbacks in state ferry service and help build 18 transit park-and-ride lots?
- Generate thousands of jobs from these transportation projects?

KEEP WASHINGTON MOVING!

Whether you’re a farmer going to market, a trucker moving goods, a vacationing family, or a commuter by car, bus or ferry, your safety and economic well-being depend on a good transportation system.

Rebuttal of Statement for Highway purposes aren’t “distorted”; they’re Constitutionally established in response to public concerns. The Variable Tax is to meet these legitimate purposes — not punish or reward motorists.

Oregon intends to raise its vehicle registration fees to double Washington’s, and increase its gas tax 2¢ next year. The Variable Tax won’t increase 1¢ in January 1978, and can’t exceed the 12¢ statutory “ceiling”.

This is the right time and right way to prevent setbacks in transportation services.

JIM MATSON, State Senator.

Official Ballot Title:
Shall certain changes be made in voter registration laws, including registration by mail and absentee voting on one day's registration?

The Law as it now exists:
Any citizen wishing to register to vote must appear before a registration officer and swear on oath that the information provided on the registration form is correct, that the citizen has not been denied his or her civil rights as a result of being convicted of an infamous crime and that the citizen will be at least 18 years of age.

Statement for
QUALIFIED CITIZENS SHOULD NOT BE DENIED THEIR RIGHT TO VOTE
The primary goal of this proposal is to eliminate unnecessary obstacles to voting. Present voter registration procedures make voting unreasonably difficult for many citizens, particularly working people, the sick, the aged and the poor—people who do not have easy access to places of registration. According to information received from the Secretary of State’s office, more than 400,000 Washington citizens are eligible but are not registered to vote.

REGISTERING TO VOTE NEED NOT BE MORE DIFFICULT THAN REGISTERING A NEW CAR
Passage of Referendum 39 will provide Washington citizens with a simple, efficient and inexpensive method of registering to vote. They will be able to register by mail in much the same way as almost half of the nation’s voters in other states. Those who register during the month before an election will be able to vote in that election by absentee ballot. The accuracy and validity of registration applications will be checked and certified exactly as they are now.

THIS SAME SYSTEM IS NOW WORKING IN SEVENTEEN OTHER STATES
Based on a recent Ford Foundation study of mail registration systems used in Maryland and Minnesota, we can expect the following as direct results of passing Referendum 39:
- Registration costs will be cut by more than one-half.
- Frivolous and fraudulent registrations will be virtually nonexistent.
- The accuracy of registration records will be improved.
- The number of registered and participating voters will be increased.

VOTE YES ON REFERENDUM 39
Your “Yes” vote on Referendum 39 will affirm the principle that voting is a fundamental right of American citizens.

Rebuttal of Statement against
FRAUDULENT VOTER REGISTRATION IS A FELONY
Registering more than once to vote in an election is obviously not worth risking five years in prison and a $5,000 fine.

VOTER FRAUD ATTEMPTS WILL BE QUICKLY DETECTED
Safeguards against error, fraud and duplication are stronger than those in present law. For example, a nonforwardable registration card will be mailed to each newly registered voter. If the card cannot be delivered because the name or address is incorrect or nonexistent, its automatic return to the county auditor will indicate possible fraud.

Voters' Pamphlet Statement Prepared by:
JOHN R. HAWKINS, State Representative; GARY GRANT, State Senator; MARILYN KNIGHT, President, League of Women Voters of Washington.
Advisory Committee: JOE DAVIS, Washington State Labor Council, AFL-CIO; CHARLES SAUVAGE, Common Cause/Washington State; RON DOTZAUER, Clark County Auditor; RICHARD GRECO, Pierce County Auditor; WILLIAM VOGLER, Grays Harbor County Auditor.
at the time of the next election. A citizen registering to vote may have to establish his or her identity by producing either a social security card, driver's license, Washington state identification card, credit card containing the signature and/or photograph of the applicant, or identification issued by the United States, any state, or any other agency which contains the signature and/or photograph of the applicant. If the registration officer has any doubt as to whether the citizen is at least 18 years of age, or will be at the time of voting, the officer may require the applicant to produce a record which establishes the date of birth. No person may vote in any election unless he or she has been registered for at least 30 days before that election.

The voter registration form will require the citizen to give his or her full name, the address of the last former registration of the citizen in the state, the sex, date of birth, place of residence for voting purposes and the daytime telephone number; if any, of the applicant. In order to vote at the regular precinct polling place, the form must be received by the county auditor at least 30 days prior to the primary or other election. If the period between registering to vote and the primary or other election is less than 30 days, the referendum will allow the citizen to vote but only by absentee ballot.

The effect of Referendum 39, if approved into Law:

The 1977 legislature added a new method for registering to vote. That new method has been referred to the voters as Referendum No. 39. If the referendum is approved, citizens wishing to register to vote may do so by requesting a voter registration form from the appropriate county auditor and mailing it in, as an alternative to appearing in person before certain designated registration officers. The voter registration form will require the citizen to give his or her full name, the address of the last former registration of the citizen in the state, the sex, date of birth, place of residence for voting purposes and the daytime telephone number, if any, of the applicant. In order to vote at the regular precinct polling place, the form must be received by the county auditor at least 30 days prior to the primary or other election. If the period between registering to vote and the primary or other election is less than 30 days, the referendum will allow the citizen to vote but only by absentee ballot.

NOTE: The ballot title and explanatory statement were written by the Attorney General as required by state law. The complete text of Referendum Measure 39 begins on Page 34.

Statement against

Referendum 39 will promote an enormous potential for error, fraud, and duplication. Just to cite one example, a voter could easily register 50 times under 50 different names, request 50 absentee ballots, and in the privacy and convenience of his own home fraudulently cast those 50 votes. Keep elections honest. Vote "no" on Referendum 39.

Rebuttal of Statement for

Postcard voter registration will increase costs to taxpayers according to many county auditors. Proponents did not cite even one specific state where postcard registration has improved voter turnout.

County auditors presently utilize numerous deputy registrars, which makes in-person registration easy for all citizens.

Bills have been introduced in some states to repeal postcard registration laws, because of charges of fraud and duplicate registrations.

Frivolous registrations will demean and undermine the dignity of our election process.

CHAPTER 288, LAWS OF 1977, 1st EX. SESS.

Vote cast by the members of the 1977 Legislature on final passage:
HOUSE [98 members]: Yeas, 70; Nays, 16; Absent or not voting, 12.
SENATE [49 members]: Yeas, 32; Nays, 6; Absent or not voting, 11.

Official Ballot Title:
Shall a state Women's Commission be established by statute?

The Law as it now exists:
No state agency established by law to deal exclusively with the interests of women is in existence at the present time. A Washington State Women's Council, created by an executive order of the Governor, however, does exist. The Council consists of 18 members. Its purpose is to advise the Governor and to work with other state

Statement for
The legislature this year enacted legislation creating the Women's Commission, affirming that the state takes the concerns of women in Washington seriously. The Commission was created as a governor's council in 1971 to remove discriminatory language from state laws and encourage leadership by state government in discarding discriminatory practices in employment opportunity, advancement and compensation for women.

FREEDOM TO CHOOSE
The Commission is dedicated to the concept of freedom of choice, recognizing the essential role of the homemaker in our society as well as women who choose to work outside the home. The legislature intends that the 14 members appointed by the governor reflect responsible, mature attitudes in a balanced ethnic, geographic, sex, age and occupational representation. Homemakers are well represented among current members as well as business, education, labor, agriculture, and law. The Commission has won equity for women in business, credit, and real estate transactions.

REPRESENTS ALL WOMEN
Women represent the majority of our population, have the highest rate of unemployment, and more than ever, head poverty level family households with no advocate at the state level other than the Women's Commission. It is not this law's intent that moral or religious issues belong on the Commission's agenda, but to ensure that women's professional and family maintenance needs are considered when state government policies and programs are determined.

VOTE YES ON REFERENDUM 40
Vote YES on Referendum 40 and extend to all women in the state a higher level of dignity and recognition of their contribution in the home, family, community, business and professions.

Rebuttal of Statement against
Opponents of the Women's Commission wish to raise emotions on controversial issues rather than face the facts. They attempt to paint anyone in favor of equal opportunities for women as a radical, homosexual, or promiscuous person. This simply is not true.
Women need the Commission to help all women in areas such as: equal pay for equal work, equal credit opportunities, equal retirement benefits, equal protection under all laws, and homemakers' rights.
Vote yes - Referendum 40.

agencies toward fostering and improving the interests and well being of women generally.

The effect of Referendum 40, if approved into Law:

The 1977 legislature created the Washington State Women’s Commission as a statutory replacement to the Washington State Women’s Council. That Commission is the subject of Referendum No. 40 and will not come into existence unless the referendum is approved by the voters. The stated legislative purpose of the Commission is to improve the status and well being of women by insuring their full and equal participation in government, business and education and by recognizing their contributions to the home, family and community. The Commission would consist of 14 members appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate. It would be authorized to advise state agencies on their development and implementation of comprehensive and coordinated policies focusing on the special problems and needs of women. The Women’s Commission, if approved, will cease to exist on June 30, 1983, unless extended by law.

Statement against

THE WASHINGTON STATE WOMEN’S COMMISSION IS UNNECESSARY

Women have the power to deal directly with elected officials and agencies and do not want a new bureaucracy claiming to represent them.

The Human Rights Commission resolves sex discrimination cases; the Commission could only refer.

THE WASHINGTON STATE WOMEN’S COMMISSION IS AN UNWISE USE OF TAX DOLLARS

Taxes are high. Our state faces a financial crisis. A costly new Commission is unwise.

The Commission will receive $200,000 of your taxes to operate but can additionally accept private gifts and grants to serve their purposes—according to terms of the giver! (Radical feminist organizations will have a way to give lobbying dollars to promote their objectives in state agencies, businesses, schools and education of the public, without full public disclosure.)

THE WASHINGTON STATE WOMEN’S COMMISSION REPRESENTS SPECIAL INTERESTS

The Council has consistently represented a narrow feminist point of view—taking stands for policies to allow:
1) avowed homosexuals to teach and adopt children;
2) contraceptives or abortions for minors without parental consent;
3) reducing legal age of sexual consent to 16;
4) passage of the federal Equal Rights Amendment;
5) abortions

The Council has shown opposition to veterans preference laws. They also advocated elimination of sex-role identification, downplaying the roles of women as homemakers and mothers.

The Council pushed for the implementation of laws which resulted in: loss of protective labor laws for women; making wives equally liable for financial support of husbands; making women subject equally to state militia; enforcing co-ed athletic programs.

SHOULD “FEMINISTS” (WOMEN’S LIB) HAVE THEIR OWN TAX-FUNDED COMMISSION? NO!!

Cast your vote to safeguard the moral, social and economic integrity of the family. Refuse to support this special interest group. VOTE NO ON REFERENDUM 40!

Rebuttal of Statement for

Don’t be fooled by flowery words! The Council has worked to eliminate discrimination—but that also includes disapproval of discrimination regarding sex orientation (homosexuality). Their “freedom to choose” also approves the freedom to obtain abortions on demand (with your tax dollars) and contraceptive availability to minors.

These examples are researched and documented. The record speaks for itself! Does this Council represent you? Shouldn’t our 147 elected legislators be our advocate? VOTE NO—REFERENDUM 40.

Shall new appropriations of public water for non-public agricultural irrigation be limited to farms of 2,000 acres or less?

The Law as it now exists:

Under existing law, the exclusive process available for the establishment of new water rights for commercial agricultural irrigation purposes is the permit system of the water codes of 1917 and 1945. These codes provide that the Department of Ecology shall issue a permit if, after investigation, it finds that there is water

WHY INITIATIVE 59?

Initiative Measure 59 addresses the question of future development of irrigated farmland in Washington State. Washington has almost 1½ million acres of irrigated land. Prior to 1966 almost all irrigation development occurred in public reclamation projects which provided water to family-size farms. In recent years, large corporations have been withdrawing public water to irrigate thousands of acres of land. Three to 4 million acres are still available for irrigation development in Washington State. Initiative 59 asks: Will these acres be developed in family-size farms for the public good, or in large corporate farms?

Ordinary family farm corporations are not affected.

A VOTE FOR INITIATIVE 59 WILL BE A VOTE FOR THE FAMILY FARM

Family farms are the basis of a stable, low cost food supply. Family farms support local communities. Family farm earnings stay in the area, supporting local businesses and creating permanent jobs for area residents. Family farms are the foundation of rural society. Family farms ensure the preservation of churches, schools, civic organizations and traditional rural values.

THE ALTERNATIVE IS LARGE CORPORATE FARMS

Most large corporate farms are governed by boards of directors in distant cities and worked by transient and commuter laborers who have no ties to local communities. Large corporations involved in both the growing and processing of agricultural products can acquire the ability to manipulate and influence prices for food products.

INITIATIVE 59 WILL ENSURE THAT PUBLIC WATER IS USED IN THE PUBLIC’S INTEREST

Initiative 59 will guarantee that the use of public water will benefit the maximum number of people. Initiative 59 will ensure that water available for irrigation will go to family farms.

Rebuttal of Statement against

DON’T BE MISLED! Initiative 59 will NOT: restrict development, cost thousands of jobs, or raise food prices. Initiative 59 grants individuals and corporations the same water rights.

FACTS: A study by the Senate Select Committee (Arvin-Dinuba) shows that Family Farms create more jobs and businesses than corporate farms. Family Farms provide the base for a stable, low-cost food supply. The independent family farmer has historically produced an abundant food supply.

WE DON'T NEED LARGE CORPORATE FARMS TO HAVE A STRONG AGRICULTURAL ECONOMY!

available for use, and the use as proposed in the application will not impair existing rights or be detrimental to the public welfare. Additional general policy directions for processing water right permit applications were given to the Department of Ecology in the Water Resources Act of 1971 and the State Environmental Policy Act of 1971.

Initiative Measure No. 59 was submitted to the Legislature for consideration at its 1977 session. Because the Legislature did not enact the initiative, the State Constitution requires the initiative measure to be submitted to the voters at the 1977 general election for their approval or disapproval.

The effect of Initiative 59, if approved into Law:

Initiative Measure No. 59 contains additional directions to be followed by the Department of Ecology in the issuance of permits authorizing new withdrawals of public waters for irrigation of agricultural lands. If the initiative is approved, the Department of Ecology is directed to issue permits authorizing the use of public waters for irrigation purposes only in four classifications, two of which are:

1. "Family farm" permits. Permits of this class shall contain no conditions limiting the period of effectiveness, such as a fifty year term. However, with limited exceptions, these permits shall restrict the holder to the use of public waters to lands constituting not more than one "family farm":
   "... a geographic area including not more than two thousand acres of irrigated agricultural lands, whether contiguous or non-contiguous, the controlling interest in which is held by a person having a controlling interest in no more than two thousand acres of irrigated agricultural lands in the state of Washington which are irrigated under rights acquired after the effective date of this act."

2. "Family farm development" permits. These permits may be issued without limitation on the number of acres of land involved. The authorization to use waters is conditioned upon the holder developing the lands into "family farms" and transferring the controlling interest in these farms to persons qualified to hold "family farms.

Statement against

LET'S KEEP GROWING WITH OUR INCREASING DEMAND FOR JOBS

Washington needs all the jobs farming can give it. Initiative 59 will cost us thousands of potential jobs by restricting the irrigation development upon which Washington's agricultural industry depends for survival. In one area alone, such irrigation development offers the potential of some 17,000 new jobs, 1,700 new businesses, 108 million dollars in new annual payrolls and a 70-fold increase in the community tax base.

. . . WITH A STRONG FARMING COMMUNITY IN A FREE ENTERPRISE SYSTEM

Strong, progressive agriculture depends on a free market economy. Initiative 59 attempts to dictate the size of farming operations by granting unlimited water rights to some farmers and denying all water to others. Farms are operated like any other business — government should not be allowed to mandate how large or small a business should be.

. . . WITH OUR INCREASING NEED FOR FOOD PRODUCTION

The American farmer's ability to provide a plentiful supply of food is unmatched anywhere in the world. Initiative 59 threatens this capability by arbitrarily restricting the water Washington's farmers need to keep on producing.

. . . WITH OUR NEED FOR ECONOMIC STABILITY BASED ON AGRICULTURE

Agriculture is our state's most important economic factor. Initiative 59 threatens all business and industry which depends on a free, healthy farming industry.

. . . WITH OUR NEED TO KEEP THE PRICE OF FOOD DOWN

Initiative 59 imposes unfair, unnecessary and burdensome restrictions. It benefits no one and, in the end, the consumer will pay for increased production costs.

Initiative 59 restricts agricultural development by arbitrarily limiting water rights for irrigation to farms of 2,000 acres or less. It is an unjustified proposal which the people of the state of Washington simply cannot afford.

DON'T STOP OUR AGRICULTURAL INDUSTRY — VOTE NO ON INITIATIVE 59!

Rebuttal of Statement for

INITIATIVE 59 DOES NOTHING FOR FAMILY FARMS!

Talking about "family farms" is just a clever attempt to get at public emotions while clouding the real issue: Initiative 59 does nothing more than limit the size of all irrigated farms whether they are owned by individuals, families or corporations.

Initiative 59 does nothing for our water resources. It simply dictates that some farmers are to have unlimited water while others shall have none at all. This is not only grossly unfair, but it is aimed at artificially restricting the size of certain businesses in this state. Aren't farmers, after all, in the business of producing food?

Shall the legislature be authorized to grant district courts jurisdiction over cases involving more than $1,000?

The Law as it now exists:

At the present time the constitution grants the legislature the authority to grant district courts jurisdiction over cases involving property worth $1,000 or less. Superior courts have original jurisdiction to all cases in which the amount in controversy amounts to over $1,000.

Statement for

WHAT IT DOES

SJR 113 will authorize the legislature to grant to district courts (called justice of the peace in our State Constitution) the authority to hear lawsuits involving up to $3,000. Right now the constitution limits them to matters in controversy up to $1,000.

WHY IT WILL HELP

The superior courts are extremely crowded, and it is expensive to handle a relatively small civil suit there. The district courts are qualified to hear these cases, and can decide them more quickly and efficiently. The result will be to reduce the superior court caseload a little, and thereby relieve some of the pressure on those courts. An even more noticeable benefit to the public will be earlier and shorter trials and speedier decisions in those smaller cases — and at less expense to the taxpayers!

Voters' Pamphlet Statement Prepared by:

PETE FRANCIS, State Senator; FRANK L. SULLIVAN, Judge, Seattle District Court.
The effect of SJR 113, if approved into Law:

This amendment would remove present constitutional limitations. It would allow the legislature to establish any dollar limit it felt appropriate on the jurisdiction of justice courts, and to grant superior courts jurisdiction over cases above that amount.

Official Ballot Title:
Shall the legislature be authorized, but not required, to establish reasonable transportation rates for both passengers and freight?

The Law as it now exists:
The constitution now requires the legislature to pass laws establishing reasonable maximum rates for the transportation of passengers and freight by common carriers.

Statement for
The Constitution requires the Legislature to establish "reasonable maximum" transportation rates. The Utilities and Transportation Commission (WUTC) has been designated by law to perform the rate setting function. Regulated carriers are required to follow the rates set by WUTC.

In some cases the use of a maximum rate has worked to the detriment of the consumer. If there is sufficient competition for a particular type of shipping, then a maximum limit is not needed; but only a minimum limit to prevent predatory pricing that would drive some carriers out and reduce competition. In some instances it may be that even the minimum rate is not needed.

If the Constitutional requirement is removed, then the Legislature and the Commission could determine where it is best to use rates other than maximum rates and, in some instances, no rate would need to be established.

At the time this provision was placed in the Constitution, there was no statutory protection against discriminatory abuses by the only available carriers—the railroads. Since then, a complex regulatory system has evolved including statutes, rules, and court decisions. In addition, there are several different types of transportation available. Therefore, the Constitution should be amended to remove specific requirements directed at particular problems, while retaining the overall regulatory authority so that the Legislature, the Commission, and the courts have the ability to deal with changing conditions to best serve the public.

No testimony was offered in opposition to the proposed Constitutional change.

Rebuttal of Statement against
The objectives being sought by the opponents of H.J.R. 55 are precisely those that will be achieved by voting for the Constitutional change. Naturally the public wants to encourage efficient transportation service at the lowest cost.

The opponents' closing sentence should be restated — we should change the present system to allow the Commission to be responsive to the economic demands of consumers.

Voters' Pamphlet Statement Prepared by:
PAUL H. CONNER, State Representative; AL HENRY, State Senator;
GEORGE SELLAR, State Senator.
The effect of HJR 55, if approved into Law:

This proposed constitutional amendment would remove the requirement that the legislature pass laws establishing reasonable maximum rates for the transportation of passengers and freight by common carriers. Instead, it would authorize the legislature to pass laws establishing reasonable rates for the transportation of passengers and freight by common carriers without the necessity of such rates being designated as maximum rates.

NOTE: The ballot title and explanatory statement were written by the Attorney General as required by state law. The complete text of House Joint Resolution 55 begins on Page 38.

Statement against

HJR 55 would eliminate the present constitutional requirement that the Legislature set maximum rates which could be charged for transportation of goods and people within Washington state. It would instead allow (but not require) the legislature to fix the rates at a specified level. Perhaps the difference is somewhat subtle but the concept presently embodied in the constitution was meant to prevent price gouging or profiteering while allowing companies to compete by setting their rates at any level below the maximum. Under HJR 55, bus or freight companies who are more efficient or who are willing to make less profit could not charge lower prices and thus benefit consumers. Although the Legislature often gets pressure from businesses to restrict competition, we must remember that our system of competitive pricing has contributed immeasurably to our high standard of living. We should not chip away at our economic system by constitutionally allowing prices to be set by the legislature, possibly in an atmosphere of high pressure lobbying, rather than by the demands of consumers.

Rebuttal of Statement for

Although it is understandable that some established companies would support limiting the ability of their competitors to offer lower prices, this measure is in direct conflict with consumer interests. Arguments implying the use of rates other than maximum are confusing because governmentally set rates are both maximum as well as minimum. Rate setting by bureaucrats is presently losing favor on a national level as evidenced by the current moves toward deregulation of airline fares.

House Joint Resolution 56
PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT

Vote cast by the members of the 1977 Legislature on final passage:
HOUSE [98 members]: Yeas, 88; Nays, 1; Absent or not voting, 9.
SENATE [49 members]: Yeas, 43; Nays, 1; Absent or not voting, 5.

The Law as it now exists:
The constitution now requires that a person or property transported by any common carrier be delivered to its destination at a charge not greater than that charged to more distant destinations in the same direction. That provision, generally known as a long-short haul clause, makes distance the primary consideration in setting charges for transportation.

Statement for
The Constitution says that a rate for a shorter distance cannot be greater than a rate for a longer distance, if it involves the same type of goods going in the same direction.
The mileage requirement was used to prevent discrimination in a time when costs were primarily related to distance. Now, however, many other factors are involved, such as labor costs, specialized shipping containers, assembly and distribution centers, different long and short-haul vehicles, etc. For example, a common practice now at major shipping points is the use of a distribution, or "break-bulk" center. Full unit shipments are sent from one center to another, then broken up for delivery to nearby points. This kind of system provides the most economical transportation, but the costs are not directly related to mileage.
If the Constitutional prohibition on short-haul differential is removed, then the rates can be set to reflect actual cost rather than relying primarily on mileage only.
At the time this provision was placed in the Constitution, there was no statutory protection against discriminatory abuses by the only available carriers—the railroads. Since then, a complex regulatory system has evolved including statutes, rules, and court decisions. In addition, there are several different types of transportation available.
Therefore, the Constitution should be amended to remove specific requirements directed at particular problems, while retaining the overall regulatory authority so that the Legislature, the Commission, and the courts have the ability to deal with changing conditions to best serve the public.
No testimony was offered in opposition to the proposed Constitutional change.

Rebuttal of Statement against
The economics of truck transportation today is no longer mainly determined by the length of the haul. Now, the service is provided more cheaply and more efficiently by moving full trucks between major shipping areas, then breaking the loads down into smaller truckloads for movement to the suburbs and smaller towns.
Given other controls, there is no danger that rebates or price gouging, against which this Constitutional provision was originally aimed, could be practiced.

Voters' Pamphlet Statement Prepared by:
PAUL H. CONNER, State Representative; AL HENRY, State Senator;
GEORGE SELLAR, State Senator.
The effect of HJR 56, if approved into Law:

The proposed constitutional amendment would remove the existing constitutional restriction. It would thus permit charges for transporting persons or property to be governed by legislation which would allow greater consideration of factors other than mileage alone.

NOTE: The ballot title and explanatory statement were written by the Attorney General as required by state law. The complete text of House Joint Resolution 56 begins on Page 38.

Statement against

The "long-short" haul clause was inserted in the Constitution to avoid rate discrimination against shippers and the general public. The intent of the clause was to insure that rates would be primarily based on the distance from the shipping point, and would not allow charging more for a shorter distance than for a longer distance over the same route.

This clause has provided a protection against assessing different rates to different shippers and shipping points. Repeal of this Constitutional protection would open the door to major problems. Freight rates could be established on any basis and would be subject to the different and changing attitudes of the Legislature and the Utilities and Transportation Commission.

Most importantly, the repeal of the long-short haul clause could detrimentally affect the smaller communities. Their distance from shipping points would be less a factor in setting the rates than the direct cost of transportation to the communities. Metropolitan communities would probably not benefit, but smaller communities could be adversely impacted.

The long-short haul clause is an important protection that has served the public well and it should not be repealed. Rate discrimination should continue to be constitutionally prohibited.

Rebuttal of Statement for

The long-short haul clause protects the communities most distant from shipping centers from rate discrimination. Mileage expenses are still a major cost of transportation.

Repeal of the Constitutional protection would leave matters affecting rates almost totally in the hands of the Legislature and the Utilities and Transportation Commission. Such discretionary rate setting authority could result in increased transportation rates to the rural communities.

Voters' Pamphlet Statement Prepared by:
IRVING NEWHOUSE, State Representative.
Official Ballot Title:
Shall the constitutional prohibition against the common carrier doing the carrying sharing earnings with another common carrier be repealed?

The Law as it now exists:
The constitution prohibits any railroad company, or other common carrier, from combining or making any contract with another common carrier, by which combination or contract the earnings of the carrier doing the carrying are to be shared by the carrier which provides no such services.

Statement for
The Constitution prohibits one carrier from sharing a fee with another carrier who has not done a portion of the transportation. This provision was included to prevent certain types of rebating that were a problem for early-day shippers.

Since then the Legislature and the Commission have developed ways to deal with the abuses of rebating. Statutes and regulations have been, and can be, passed to control problems in this area. The Constitutional prohibition, however, has worked to prevent some arrangements that would be more economical for the shippers and the carriers. For instance, if one carrier has plenty of labor available but no equipment, while another has equipment but no labor, it makes sense to combine their resources to get the load going.

At the time this provision was placed in the Constitution, there was no statutory protection against discriminatory abuses by the only available carriers—the railroads. Since then, a complex regulatory system has evolved including statues, rules, and court decisions. In addition, there are several different types of transportation available. Therefore, the Constitution should be amended to remove specific requirements directed at particular problems, while retaining the overall regulatory authority so that the Legislature, the Commission, and the courts have the ability to deal with changing conditions to best serve the public.

PAUL H. CONNER, State Representative; AL HENRY, State Senator; GEORGE SELLAR, State Senator.
The effect of HJR 57, if approved into Law:

The proposed constitutional amendment would, by repealing the existing prohibition in the constitution, permit sharing of earnings subject to such controls as the legislature or the Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission might promulgate.

If such action is instituted by a private person, the complainant shall execute a bond to the person against whom complaint is made, with good and sufficient surety to be approved by the court or clerk thereof, in the sum of not less than five hundred dollars, to secure to the party enjoined the damages he may sustain if such action is wrongfully brought, and the court finds there was no reasonable grounds or cause for said action and the case is dismissed for that reason before trial or for want of prosecution. attorney or citizen, to perpetually enjoin said nuisance, the person or persons conducting or maintaining the same, and the owner or the agent of the building or ground upon which said nuisance exists, in such action, the court or judge may, upon the presentation of a petition alleging that the nuisance complained of exists, allow a temporary injunction if it shall be made to appear that such nuisance exists, and that such nuisance exists.

If at the time the temporary injunction is granted, it further appears that the person owning, in control of, or in charge of the nuisance so enjoined had received three days notice of the hearing, then the court shall declare the existence of such nuisance.

If the hearing is then continued at the instance of any defendant, the temporary injunction which would be admissible in the trial on the merits or restraining the removal or interference with such personal property, and if such temporary injunction has been already issued, shall cancel said order and shall deliver such real or personal property, or both, to the respective owners thereof. The release of any real or personal property under this section shall not release it from any judgment, lien, penalty, or liability to which it may be subjected by law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. There is added to chapter 127, Laws of 1913 and to chapter 7.48 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The owner of any real or personal property to be closed or restrained, or which has been closed or restrained, may appear after the filing of the complaint and before the hearing on the application for a permanent injunction.

The court, if satisfied of the good faith of the owner of the real property and of the innocence on the part of any owner of the personal property of any knowledge of its use as a nuisance, and that with reasonable care and diligence such owner could not have known thereof shall, at the time of the hearing on the application for the temporary injunction and upon payment of all costs incurred and upon the filing of a bond by the owner of the real property with sureties to be approved by the clerk in the full value of the property to be ascertained by the court, conditioned that such owner will immediately abate the nuisance and prevent the same from being established or kept, refrain from issuing any order closing such real property or restraining the removal or interference with such personal property, and, if such temporary injunction has already been issued, shall cancel said order and shall deliver such real or personal property, or both, to the respective owners thereof. The release of any real or personal property under this section shall not release it from any judgment, lien, penalty, or liability to which it may be subjected by law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. There is added to chapter 127, Laws of 1913 and to chapter 7.48 RCW a new section to read as follows:

If at the time the temporary injunction is granted, it further appears that the person owning, in control of, or in charge of such nuisance shows to the satisfaction of the court or judge, by competent and admissible evidence which is subject to cross-examination, that the nuisance complained of has been abated by such person; or

(2) The owner of such property, as a "good faith" lessor, has taken action to void said lease as is authorized by section 17 of this 1977 amendatory act.

Such order shall also continue in effect for such further period as the order authorized in section 7 of this 1977 amendatory act provides. If no order has been issued pursuant to section 7 of this 1977 amendatory act, then an order restraining the removal or interference with the personal property and contents located therein shall be issued. Such restraining order shall be served and the inventory of such property shall be made and filed as provided for in section 7 of this 1977 amendatory act.

Such order shall also require such persons to show cause within thirty days why such closing order should not be made permanent, as provided for in section 15 of this 1977 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. There is added to chapter 127, Laws of 1913 and to chapter 7.48 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Where such application for a temporary injunction is made, the court or judge thereof may, on application of the complainant showing good cause, issue an ex parte restraining order, restraining the defendant and all other persons from removing or in any manner interfering with the personal property and contents of the place where such nuisance is alleged to exist, until the decision of the court or judge granting or refusing such temporary injunction and until the further order of the court thereon, except that pending such decision, the stock in trade may not be so restrained, but an inventory and full accounting of all business transactions may be required.

The restraining order may be served by handing to and leaving a copy of such order with any person in charge of such place or residing therein, or by posting a copy thereof in a conspicuous place at or upon one or more of the principal doors or entrances to such place, or by both such delivery and posting. The officer serving such restraining order shall forthwith make and return into court an inventory of the personal property and contents situated in and used in conducting or maintaining such nuisance.

Any violation of such restraining order is a contempt of court, and where such order is posted, mutilation or removal thereof while the same remains in force is a contempt of court if such posted order contains therein a notice to that effect.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. There is added to chapter 127, Laws of 1913 and to chapter 7.48 RCW a new section to read as follows:

A copy of the complaint, together with a notice of the time and place of the hearing of the application for a temporary injunction, shall be served upon the defendant at least three days before such hearing. The place may also be served by posting such papers in the same manner as is provided for in section 7 of this 1977 amendatory act in the case of a restraining order. If the hearing is then continued at the instance of any defendant, the temporary writ as prayed shall be granted as a matter of course.

Before or after the commencement of the hearing of an application for a temporary injunction, the court, on application of either of the parties or on its own motion, may order the trial of the action on the merits to be advanced and consolidated with the hearing on the application for the temporary injunction. Any evidence received upon an application for a temporary injunction which would be admissible in the trial on the merits becomes a part of the record of the trial and need not be repeated as to such parties at the trial on the merits.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. There is added to chapter 127, Laws of 1913 and to chapter 7.48 RCW a new section to read as follows:

If upon hearing, the allegations of the complaint are sustained to the satisfaction of the court or judge, the court or judge shall issue a temporary injunction without additional bond, restraining the defendant and any other person from continuing the nuisance.

If at the time the temporary injunction is granted, it further appears that the person owning, in control of, or in charge of the nuisance so enjoined had received three days notice of the hearing, then the court shall declare a temporary forfeiture of the use of the real property upon which such public nuisance is located and the personal property located therein, and shall forthwith issue an order closing such place against its use for any purpose until a final decision is rendered on the application for a permanent injunction, unless:

(1) The person owning, in control of, or in charge of such nuisance shows to the satisfaction of the court or judge, by competent and admissible evidence which is subject to cross-examination, that the nuisance complained of has been abated by such person; or or for want of prosecution, the costs, including attorney’s fees, may be taxed to such person.

If the existence of the nuisance is established upon the trial, a judgment shall be entered which shall perpetually enjoin the defendant and any other person from further maintaining the nuisance at the place complained of, and the defendant from maintaining such nuisance elsewhere. The entire expenses of such abatement, including attorney’s fees, shall be recoverable by the plaintiff as a part of his costs of the lawsuit.

If the complaint is filed by a person who is a citizen of the county, it shall not be dismissed except upon a sworn statement by the complainant and his attorney, setting forth the reason why the action should be dismissed and the dismissal approved by the prosecuting attorney in writing or in open court. If the judge is of the opinion that the action should not be dismissed, he may direct the prosecuting attorney to proseute said action to judgment at the expense of the county, and if the action is continued for more than one term of court, any person who is a citizen of the county or has an office therein, or the attorney general, the prosecuting attorney, city attorney, or city prosecutor, may be substituted for the complainant and prosecute said action to judgment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. There is added to chapter 127, Laws of 1913 and to chapter 7.48 RCW a new section to read as follows:

If the existence of a nuisance is admitted or established in an action as provided for in section 5 of this 1977 amendatory act or in a criminal proceeding, an order of abatement shall be entered as a part of the judgment in such case which order shall direct the removal from the place of all personal property and contents used in conducting the nuisance and not already released under authority of the court as provided for in sections 9 and 10 of this 1977 amendatory act, and shall direct the sale of such thereof as belong to the defendants notified or appearing, in the manner provided for the sale of chattels under execution. Lewd matter shall be destroyed and shall not be sold.

Such judgment shall impose a penalty of three hundred dollars for the maintenance of such nuisance, which penalty shall be imposed against the person or persons found to have maintained the nuisance, and, in case any owner or agent of the building found to have had actual or constructive notice of the maintenance of such nuisance, and against the building kept or used for the purposes of maintaining a moral nuisance, which penalty shall be collected by execution as in civil actions, and when collected, shall be paid into the current expense fund of the county in which the judgment is had.

Such order shall also require the renewal for one year of any bond furnished by the owner of the real property, as provided in section 10 of this 1977 amendatory act or, if not so furnished, shall continue for one year any closing order issued at the time of granting the temporary injunction, or, if no such order is issued, shall be entered which order shall direct the removal from the place of all personal property and contents so seized must appear and obtain such release in the manner and upon fulfilling the requirements provided in section 10 of this 1977 amendatory act.

Owners of unsold personal property and contents so seized must appear and claim the same within ten days after such order of abatement is made, and prove innocence to the satisfaction of the court of any knowledge of such use thereof, and that with reasonable care and diligence they could not have known thereof. If such innocence is established, such unsold personal property and contents shall be delivered to the owner, otherwise it shall be sold as provided in this section. For removing and selling the personal property and contents, the officer shall be entitled to charge and receive the same fees as he would for levying upon and selling like property on execution, and for closing the place and keeping it closed, a reasonable sum shall be allowed by the court.

Sec. 16. Section 4, chapter 127, Laws of 1913 and RCW 7.48.080 are each amended to read as follows:

In case of the violation of any injunction granted under the provisions of RCW 7.48.050 through 7.48.100 as now or hereafter amended, the court or judge may summarily try and punish the offender. The proceedings shall be commenced by filing with the clerk of the court an information under oath, setting out the alleged facts constituting such violation, upon which the court or judge shall cause an attachment to issue, under which the defendant shall be arrested. The trial may be had upon affidavits, or either party may demand the production and oral examination of the witnesses. A party found guilty of contempt under the provisions of this section shall be punished by a fine or not less than two hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not less than three nor more than six months, or by both fine and imprisonment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. There is added to chapter 127, Laws of 1913 and to chapter 7.48 RCW a new section to read as follows:

If a tenant or occupant of a building or tenement, under a lawful title, uses such place for the purposes of maintaining a moral nuisance, such use makes void at the option of the owner the lease or other title under which he holds, and without any act of the owner causes the right of possession to revert and vest in such owner, who may without process of law make immediate entry upon the premises.

Sec. 18. Section 5, chapter 127, Laws of 1913 as amended by section 1, chapter 94, Laws of 1927 and RCW 7.48.090 are each amended to read as follows:

(If-the existence of a nuisance be established in an action as provided in RCW 7.48.090 through 7.48.110, or in a criminal proceeding, an order of abatement shall be entered as a part of the judgment in the case which order shall direct the removal from the building or place where such nuisance is maintained, of all furniture, musical instruments and movable property, used in conducting the nuisance, and may direct the sale thereof in the manner provided for the sale of chattels under execution, and there shall be entered as a part of the judgment in the case, an order effectually closing the building or place against its use for any purpose, and so keeping it closed for a period of not exceeding six months, and such judgment shall contain a decree perpetually enjoining the person or persons found to have maintained such nuisance, from maintaining such nuisance, and such judgment shall impose a penalty of three hundred dollars for the maintenance of such nuisance which penalty shall be imposed against the person or persons found to have maintained the said nuisance, and to the defendants notified or appearing, in the manner provided for the sale of chattels under execution. Lewd matter shall be destroyed and shall not be sold.

Such judgment shall impose a penalty of three hundred dollars for the maintenance of such nuisance, which penalty shall be imposed against the person or persons found to have maintained such nuisance, and against the building kept or used for the purposes of maintaining a moral nuisance, which penalty shall be collected by execution as in civil actions, and when collected, shall be paid into the current expense fund of the county in which the judgment is had. Such order shall also require the renewal for one year of any bond furnished by the owner of the real property, as provided in section 10 of this 1977 amendatory act or, if not so furnished, shall continue for one year any closing order issued at the time of granting the temporary injunction, or, if no such closing order was then issued, shall include an order directing the effectual closing of the place against its use for any purpose and keeping it closed for a period of one year unless sooner released.

The owner of any place closed and not released under bond may then appear and obtain such release in the manner and upon fulfilling the requirements provided in section 10 of this 1977 amendatory act.

Owners of unsold personal property and contents so seized must appear and claim the same within ten days after such order of abatement is made, and prove innocence to the satisfaction of the court of any knowledge of such use thereof, and that with reasonable care and diligence they could not have known thereof. If such innocence is established, such unsold personal property and contents shall be delivered to the owner, otherwise it shall be sold as provided in this section. For removing and selling the personal property and contents, the officer shall be entitled to charge and receive the same fees as he would for levying upon and selling like property on execution, and for closing the place and keeping it closed, a reasonable sum shall be allowed by the court.

The county auditor shall be responsible for the conduct of voter registration within the county and shall be the custodian of all official voter registration records for that county.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The secretary of state shall design a unified voter registration form, compatible with existing records, which will permit the applicant to conveniently prepare, on a single card, an original registration, an initiative signature card as required by section 14 of this 1977 amendatory act, and a cancellation of any prior registration in this state. The applicant shall enter the required information, other than his or her signature, no more than one time. The form shall also contain instructions on its use, a notification of filing deadlines specified by section 16 of this 1977 amendatory act, a warning to the applicant of the penalty for knowingly supplying false information, and space for the county auditor to enter the voter's precinct identification, taxing district identification, and registration number. The reverse side of the form shall be printed to permit mailing to the county auditor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Registration forms necessary to carry out the registration of voters as provided by this chapter shall be furnished by the secretary of state without cost to the respective counties.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The original voter registration records for all precincts within each county shall be filed alphabetically without regard to precincts in the office of the county auditor and shall not be open to public inspection. The information from such records, with the exception of date of birth, shall be available for public inspection and copying as provided in RCW 29.04.100 and 29.04.110.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Each county auditor shall maintain a computer file on magnetic tape or disk, punched cards, or other form of data storage containing the records of all registered voters within the county. Where it is necessary or advisable, the auditor may provide for the maintenance of such files by private contract or through interlocal agreement as provided by chapter 39.34 RCW, as now or hereafter amended. The computer file shall include, but not be limited to, each voter's name, residence address, sex, date of registration, applicable taxing district and precinct codes, and the last five consecutive dates on which the individual has voted: PROVIDED, That if the voter has not voted at least five times since establishing his or her current registration record, only the available dates shall be included. The county auditor shall subsequently record each consecutive date upon which the individual votes and retain at least the last five such consecutive dates. The computer file of voter registration records shall be arranged so that individual precinct lists of registered voters may be prepared containing only the names, and other information required by this section, listed alphabetically by the surnames of the voters in that precinct.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. There is established in the state general fund an account, entitled the voter registration assistance account, to be used to compensate county auditors in counties with fewer than twelve thousand registered voters at the time of the most recent state general election, for unrecoverable costs incident to the maintenance of voter registration records on electronic data processing systems. The secretary of state shall administer the voter registration assistance account and authorize the payments thereto from under such rules as he may prescribe. County auditors in counties entitled to this compensation shall be paid annually an amount equal to thirty cents for each registered voter in that county at the time of the most recent state general election.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. The expense of voter registration and the maintenance of voter registration records shall be apportioned between the county and the cities and towns within that county according to the number of voters registered in all rural areas of the county and in each city and town, respectively, at the time of the last state general election.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. The county auditor shall be responsible for the distribution of voter registration forms by which a person may register to vote and cancel any previous registration in the state. Registrations submitted on such voter registration forms need not be subscribed to by the county auditor or a deputized registrar. The county auditor shall keep an adequate supply of voter registration forms in his or her office at all times for political parties and others interested in assisting in voter registration, and he or she shall make every effort to make these forms generally available to the public through government offices, businesses, labor union offices, schools, and any other locations necessary to extend registration opportunities to all areas of the county. After the initial distribution of voter registration forms to a given location, it shall be the duty of a representative designated at that location by that office, business, union, school, firm, or other establishment to notify the county auditor of the need for additional supplies of voter registration forms.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. An applicant for registration shall record on the registration form the following items concerning his or her qualifications as a voter of this state, and of the county, city, town, and precinct in which he or she applies for registration:
(1) The address of his or her last former registration as a voter in this state, if applicable;
(2) His or her full name;
(3) His or her sex;
(4) His or her date of birth;
(5) His or her place of residence for voting purposes, giving the street and number, or post office box and physical description sufficient to determine location; and
(6) His or her daytime telephone number, if any. After completing this information concerning his or her qualifications, the applicant shall sign a statement in the following form: "I, the undersigned, hereby declare that the facts set forth relating to my qualifications as a voter are true. I further declare that I am a citizen of the United States, that I am not presently denied my civil rights as a result of being convicted of an infamous crime, that I will have lived in this state, county, and precinct thirty days immediately preceding the next election at which I offer to vote, and that I will be at least eighteen years of age at the time of voting;"

The applicant shall also sign his or her name upon a separate portion of the voter registration card, to be designated as an initiative signature card, which also contains spaces for his or her surname, followed by his or her given name or names, the names of the county and city or town, with post office or street address, the date on which the individual registered, and the name or number of the precinct in which the voter is registered.

The voter registration form shall provide, in a conspicuous place, the following warning: "Any person who knowingly supplies false information on this voter registration form or who knowingly makes a false declaration as to his or her qualifications for registration shall be guilty of a class C felony."

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. Upon receipt of a completed voter registration form, the county auditor shall immediately examine the form to see that the applicant for registration is not currently registered in that county and shall record on the form the precinct identification, taxing district identification, and other information required by law. Except as provided in section 16 of this 1977 amendatory act, the county auditor, within thirty days of receipt of a voter registration form, shall send to the applicant by first class mail a voter registration card identifying his or her current precinct and containing such other information as may be prescribed by the secretary of state. If the voter registration form is incomplete or incorrect the county auditor, within fifteen days of receipt of such form, shall so notify the applicant, and if necessary, send him or her a new voter registration form. The post office shall be instructed not to forward this form or any voter registration form to any other address and to return to the county auditor all undelivered forms and voter registration cards.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. To be included among the records of a given precinct for any primary or election, the applicant's voter registration form must be received not later than thirty days prior to that primary or election.

An applicant for registration whose otherwise complete and correct application is received less than thirty days prior to a primary or election shall be notified by the county auditor that he or she is not eligible to vote in such primary or election at a regular precinct polling place, explaining that he or she may vote an absentee ballot for said primary or election under section 19 of this 1977 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. At least thirty-five days prior to each primary or election, the county auditor shall give notice that, in order to be eligible to vote in that election at a regular precinct polling place, an original voter registration form or a request for transfer must be received not later than thirty days prior to that primary or election.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. Any qualified elector temporarily residing outside of the county of his or her permanent residence but within the state of Washington, may submit a registration form to the auditor of the county in which he or she is temporarily residing in the manner provided in this chapter. The county auditor receiving the voter registration forms as provided in section 15 of this 1977 amendatory act shall transmit the forms to the county auditor of the county where the applicant permanently resides. A voter registration form received from another county shall be processed immediately by the county auditor of the place of permanent residence of the applicant in the manner provided in sections 15 and 16 of this 1977 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. Any otherwise qualified elector whose otherwise complete and correct application for voter registration is received by the county auditor less than thirty days prior to a primary or election, general or special, may apply prior to the day of such primary or election in person to the office of the county auditor of the county of his or her residence for a special absentee ballot for such election or primary. The auditor shall register the individual in the manner provided in this chapter, but the registration shall not be effective until thirty days after its execution. The auditor, after the twenty-first day before the election in which the individual intends to vote, shall issue the individual an absentee ballot for any election which occurs before the effectiveness of the individual's registration. This absentee ballot shall be of the same form and shall be processed and canvassed in the same manner as other absentee ballots under chapter 29.36 RCW, as now or hereafter amended.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. On the first Monday of each calendar month the county auditor shall transmit all initiative signature cards which have been received in his or her office during the prior month to the secretary of state for filing in his office. Each lot must be accompanied by the certificate of the county auditor that the cards so transmitted are the original cards, and that all the voters are registered in the precincts and from the addresses shown therein.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. The initiative signature cards shall be kept on file in the office of the secretary of state in such manner as will be most convenient for, and for the sole purpose of, checking initiative and referendum petitions. They shall not be open to public inspection or be used for any other purpose.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. Prior to each primary or election, the county auditor shall prepare a precinct list of registered voters for each precinct in which that primary or election is to be conducted and a certificate as to the authenticity of those records. He or she shall deliver the precinct list of registered voters and the certificate to the inspector or one of the judges of the appropriate precinct at the proper polling place as provided by RCW 29.48.030, as now or hereafter amended.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. The precinct list of registered voters for each precinct delivered to the precinct election officers for use on the day of a primary or an election held in that precinct, shall be returned by them to the county auditor upon the closing of the polling place or at the completion of the count of the votes cast in that precinct at the primary or election. The lists shall be retained by the county auditor for a period of at least one year following the election. These records shall be open to public inspection under such rules as the county auditor may prescribe.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. The secretary of state, as chief election officer, shall adopt rules not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter to:
(1) Provide the specifications, including style, form, color, quality, and dimensions of the cards, records, forms, lists, and other supplies to be used in recording and maintaining voter registration records;

AN ACT Relating to state government; creating the Washington state women's commission; creating a new chapter in Title 43 RCW; making an appropriation; and providing an expiration date for the Washington state women's commission.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. The legislature reaffirms that the public policy of this state is to insure equal opportunity for all of its citizens. The legislature finds that women have unique and special problems. It is the purpose of this chapter to improve the status and well-being of women by insuring their full and equal participation in government, business and education and recognizing their contribution to the home, family, and community. The legislature further finds that it is desirable to direct a continuing evaluation and study of state laws and rules as they affect women; and further, to encourage the education of the citizens of this state in respect to public policy as it relates to the diverse pursuits of women, and to encourage the promotion of equality. Therefore, the legislature deems it necessary to create a commission to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is established a Washington state women's commission in the office of the governor. Upon the effective date of this act, the Washington state women's commission shall replace the Washington state women's council, and all equipment, files, and records of the council shall be transferred to the commission.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) The commission shall consist of fourteen members appointed by the governor with the advice and consent of the senate. Two members of the senate, not of the same political party, appointed by the president of the senate, and two members of the house of representatives, not of the same political party, appointed by the speaker of the house, shall serve as advisory members. The governor shall consider nominations for membership based upon maintaining a balanced distribution of ethnic, geographic, sex, age, and occupational representation, where practicable.

(2) All women's commission members shall serve at the pleasure of the governor, but in no case shall any member serve more than three years without formal reappointment by the governor. All legislative advisory members shall serve for a two-year term, and the position of any legislative advisory member shall be deemed vacated whenever such member ceases to be a member of the house from which he or she was appointed. Of the persons initially appointed by the governor to the women's commission, five shall be appointed to serve one year, five to serve two years, and four to serve three years. Upon expiration of such terms, subsequent appointments shall be for three years. Any vacancies occurring in the membership of the commission shall be filled for the remainder of the unexpired term in the same manner as the original appointments.

(3) Members shall be reimbursed for subsistence, lodging, and transportation expenses incurred in the performance of their duties in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 as now existing or hereafter amended.

(4) Fifty percent of the membership plus one shall constitute a quorum for the purpose of conducting business.

(5) The governor shall appoint an executive director of the commission.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The executive director shall appoint a staff who shall be state employees pursuant to Title 41 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The commission shall adopt, pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW, the Administrative Procedure Act, rules necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) The commission shall examine and define issues pertaining to the rights and needs of all women and make recommendations to the governor, the legislature, and state agencies with respect to desirable changes in programs, laws, and administrative practices.

(2) The commission shall further advise such state agencies on the development and implementation of comprehensive and coordinated policies, plans, and programs focusing on the special problems and needs of women.

(3) The commission is authorized to gather data and disseminate information to the public in order to implement the purposes of this chapter.

(4) Each state department and agency shall provide appropriate and reasonable assistance to the commission as needed in order that the commission may carry out the purposes of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. In carrying out its duties the commission may establish such relationships with public and private institutions, local governments, private industry, community organizations, and other segments of the general public as may be needed to promote equal opportunity for women in government, education, economic security, employment, and services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The commission shall have authority to receive such gifts, grants, and endowments from private sources as may be made from time to time in trust or otherwise for the use and benefit of the purposes of the commission and to expend the same or any income therefrom according to the terms of said gifts, grants, or endowments, and the purposes of this chapter. The executive director shall make a report of such funds received from private sources to the legislative budget committee on a current basis. Such funds received from private sources shall not be applied to reduce or substitute for the commission's budget as appropriated by the legislature, but, shall be applied and expended toward projects and functions authorized by this chapter which were not funded by the legislature.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. If any provision of this act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Sections 1 through 9 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 43 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. To carry out the provisions of this act there is appropriated to the Washington state women's commission from the general fund for the biennium ending June 30, 1979, the sum of two thousand dollars, or so much thereof as shall be necessary.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. The Washington state women's commission shall cease to exist on June 30, 1983, unless extended by law for an additional fixed period of time.

AN ACT Relating to the withdrawal of public waters for use in irrigation of agricultural lands; establishing family farm permits and other water permit classifications; and adding a new chapter to Title 90 RCW.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the "Family Farm Water Act".

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Nothing in this chapter shall affect any right to withdraw and use public waters if such rights were in effect prior to the effective date of the act, and nothing herein shall modify the priority of any such existing right.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The people of the state of Washington recognize that it is in the public interest to conserve and use wisely the public surface and ground waters of the state in a manner that will assure the maximum benefit to the greatest possible number of its citizens. The maximum benefit to the greatest number of citizens through the use of water for the irrigation of agricultural lands will result from providing for the use of such water on family farms. To assure that future permits issued for the use of public waters for irrigation of agricultural lands will be made on the basis of deriving such maximum benefits, in addition to any other requirements in the law, all permits for the withdrawal of public waters for the purpose of irrigating agricultural lands after the effective date of this act shall be issued in accord with the provisions of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. For the purposes of this chapter, the following definitions shall be applicable:

(1) "Family farm" means a geographic area including not more than two thousand acres of irrigated agricultural lands, whether contiguous or not contiguous, the controlling interest in which is held by a person having a controlling interest in no more than two thousand acres of irrigated agricultural lands in the state of Washington which are irrigated under rights acquired after the effective date of this act.

(2) "Person" means any individual, or corporation, partnership, limited partnership, organization, or other entity whatsoever, whether public or private. The term "person" shall include as one person all corporate or partnership entities with a common ownership of more than one-half of the assets of each of any number of such entities.

(3) "Controlling interest" means a property interest that can be transferred to another person, the percentage interest so transferred being sufficient to effect a change in control of the landlord's rights and benefits. Ownership of property held in trust shall not be deemed a controlling interest where no part of the trust has been established through expenditure or assignment of assets of the beneficiary of the trust and where the rights of the family farm permit which is a part of the trust cannot be transferred to another by the beneficiary of the trust under terms of the trust. Each trust of a separate donor origin shall be treated as a separate entity and the administration of property under trust shall not represent a controlling interest on the part of the trust officer.

(4) "Department" means the department of ecology of the state of Washington.

(5) "Application", "permit" and "public waters" shall have the meanings attributed to these terms in chapters 90.03 and 90.44 RCW.

(6) "Public water entity" means any public or governmental entity with authority to administer and operate a system to supply water for irrigation of agricultural lands.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. After the effective date of this act, all permits issued for the withdrawal of public waters for the purpose of irrigating agricultural lands shall be classified as follows and issued with the conditions set forth in this chapter:

(1) "Family farm permits". Such permits shall limit the use of water withdrawn for irrigation of agricultural lands to land qualifying as a family farm.

(2) "Family farm development permits". Such permits may be issued to persons without any limit on the number of acres to be irrigated during a specified period of time permitted for the development of such land into family farms and the transfer of the controlling interest of such irrigated lands to persons qualifying for family farm permits. The initial period of time allowed for development and transfer of such lands to family farm status shall not exceed ten years. Such time limit may be extended by the department for not to exceed an additional ten years upon a showing to the department that an additional period of time is needed for orderly development and transfer of controlling interests to persons who can qualify for family farm permits.

(3) "Publicly owned land permits". Such permits shall be issued only to governmental entities permitting the irrigation of publicly owned lands.

(4) "Public water entity permits". Such permits may be issued to public water entity permits under provisions requiring such public water entity, with respect to delivery of water for use in the irrigation of agricultural lands, to make water deliveries under the same provisions as would apply if separate permits were issued for persons eligible for family farm permits, permits to develop family farms, or for the irrigation of publicly owned land: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That such provisions shall not apply with respect to water deliveries on federally authorized reclamation projects if such federally authorized projects provide for acreage limitations in water delivery contracts.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) The right to withdraw water for use for the irrigation of agricultural lands under authority of a family farm permit shall have no time limit but shall be conditioned upon the land being irrigated complying with the definition of a family farm as defined at the time the permit is issued: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That if the acquisition by any person of land and water rights by gift, devise, bequest, or by way of bona fide satisfaction of a debt, would otherwise cause land being irrigated pursuant to a family farm permit to lose its status as a family farm, such acquisition shall be deemed to have no effect upon the status of family farm water permits pertaining to land held or acquired by the person acquiring such land and water rights if all lands held or acquired are again in conformance with the definition of a family farm within five years from the date of such acquisition.

(2) If the department determines that water is being withdrawn under a family farm permit for use on land not in conformity with the definition of a family farm, the department shall notify the holder of such family farm permit by personal service of such fact and the permit shall be suspended two years from the date of receipt of notice unless the person having a controlling interest in said land satisfies the department that such land is again in conformance with the definition of a family farm. The department may, upon a showing of good cause and reasonable effort to attain compliance on the part of the person having the controlling interest in such land, extend the two year period prior to suspension. If conformity is not achieved prior to five years from the date of notice the rights of withdrawal shall be canceled.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. (1) At any time that the holder of a family farm development permit or a publicly owned land permit shall transfer the controlling interest of all or any portion of the land entitled to water under such permit to a person who can qualify to receive water for irrigation of such land under a family farm permit, the department shall, upon request, issue a family farm permit to such person under the same conditions as would have been applicable if such request had been made at the time of the granting of the original family farm development permit. If the permit under which water is available is held by a public water entity prior to the transfer of the controlling interest to a person who qualifies for a family farm permit, such entity shall continue delivery of water to such land without any restriction on the length of time of delivery not applicable generally to all its water customers.

(2) The issuance of a family farm permit secured through the acquisition of land and water rights from the holder of a family farm development permit, or from the holder of a publicly owned land permit, where water delivery prior to the transfer is from a public water entity, may be conditioned upon the holder of the family farm permit issued continuing to receive water through the facilities of the public water entity.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The department is hereby empowered to promulgate such rules as may be necessary to carry the provisions of this chapter. Decisions of the department, other than rule making, shall be subject to review in accordance with chapter 43.21B RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. This chapter is exempted from the rule of strict construction and it shall be liberally construed to give full effect to the objectives and purposes for which it was enacted.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. If any provision of this act, or its application to any person, organization, or circumstance is held invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons, organizations, or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Sections 1 through 10 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 90 RCW.

This constitutional provision would be repealed by House Joint Resolution 57:

Article XII, Section 14

Prohibition against combinations by carriers. No railroad company, or other common carrier, shall combine or make any contract with the owners of any vessel that leaves port or makes port in this state, or with any common carrier, by which combination or contract the earnings of one doing the carrying are to be shared by the other not doing the carrying.

Farm permits within an initial time period not exceeding ten years from the date of issuance of the permit and a possible additional period of up to ten years. Purchasers of irrigated land developed under a family farm development permit in parcels of two thousand acres or less would receive water rights without any time limitations.

The other two classifications of permits are (1) permits which may be issued only to governmental entities for the purpose of irrigating publicly owned land, and (2) permits which may be issued to public water entities, such as irrigation districts, for distribution of water for agricultural irrigation under the same provisions as would apply if separate permits were issued to persons eligible for a family farm permit, a permit to develop family farms, or a permit for publicly owned lands.

None of the provisions of the initiative shall affect any right to use public waters in effect prior to the effective date of the initiative.
