General Election, Tuesday, November 2, 1982

OFFICIAL VOTERS PAMPHLET

PUBLISHED BY THE OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY OF STATE

WASHINGTON STATE LIBRARY STATE DEPOSITORY COPY

EDITION 1
How to Obtain an Absentee Ballot:

Any registered voter who cannot vote in person may apply to the county auditor or department of elections for an absentee ballot. Any signed request with the necessary information will be honored. For your convenience, an application form is reproduced below. The addresses of the auditors or departments of elections are also listed below. In order to be certain that an absentee ballot request is authentic, the election laws require that the signature on the application be verified by comparison with the signature on the voter's permanent registration record. For this reason if a husband and wife both wish to vote by absentee ballot, both must sign the application form or separate, signed requests should be submitted. In order to be counted, an absentee ballot must be voted and postmarked no later than the day of the election. If you intend to vote an absentee ballot, make your request as soon as possible to allow sufficient time for an exchange of correspondence with the county auditor or department of elections. Absentee ballot requests may be presented in person at the office of the county auditor or department of elections up until the day of the election. No absentee ballots may be issued on the day of the election.

BALLOT RETURNED
INTRODUCTION TO THE 1982 VOTERS PAMPHLET

Nearly one-hundred years ago, in 1889, a small band of citizens gathered in Olympia, with the goal of achieving statehood for the people of what was then the Washington Territory. They succeeded and, in just seven years, we will celebrate our state's 100th birthday.

In our constitution and the amendments adopted early in this century, the founders of our state gave us a number of unique and special freedoms that we should reflect upon as we approach our Centennial:

- the right of all adult citizens to vote;
- the individual voter's right to propose legislation through the initiative and referendum process;
- full access to the polls for all citizens, including the disabled;
- this statewide voters pamphlet, offered since 1914, to provide ready information on candidates and issues.

On November 2, you will have the opportunity to vote on four state ballot measures and candidates for federal, state, and local offices. This Voters and Candidates Pamphlet is sent to you and to all other residents of Washington State to assist you in making your decisions on these important propositions and candidates.

Help make Washington as good for our children as it has been for us. Let us continue the tradition established by our state's founders by voting on November 2nd.

Official Ballot Title: Shall the maximum interest rate on retail sales be the higher of 12% or 1% over the federal discount rate?

The law as it now exists:

Current state law limits the rate of interest which may be charged on purchases of goods or services primarily for personal, family, or household use under a retail installment contract or a revolving charge agreement.

The maximum annual interest rate for retail installment contracts is 6% higher than the average interest rate on 26-week Treasury Bills.

The effect of Initiative No. 412, if approved into law:

If approved into law, Initiative 412 would set the maximum annual interest rate for retail installment contracts at 1% above the federal discount rate.

The effect of Initiative No. 412, if approved into law:

If approved into law, Initiative 412 would set the maximum annual interest rate for retail installment contracts at 1% above the federal discount rate.

The fact is: Initiative 412 would have the opposite of its intended effect. It would force retailers to raise prices and restrict credit to people. It would force bank cards out of state—and rates would go up. Initiative 412 hurts people who need credit. It hurts small retailers. If it passes, Washington people would pay more.

Initiative 412 will lower interest rates on retail credit—bank cards, store cards, and retail installment contracts. It will also send a message to government that all interest rates must come down.

We want fair and affordable consumer credit. And we want our state's economy to improve. 412 helps.

Retail credit is offered to stimulate sales, pure and simple. Big banks and big business charge excessive interest rates for more profit. Claims that credit won't be available are scare tactics. Retail credit will be available because retailers must sell their goods to make a profit. Credit is a proven device to increase sales.

Our economy is strangled by high interest rates. Consumers, discouraged by interest rates of 18% or more, are postponing purchases of new cars, furniture and other durable goods. Businesses are going bankrupt at record rates. Each retail dollar saved on interest will be spent on other goods and services.

Washington's economy will improve when consumers buy more.

412 allows consumers to start buying again and retail businesses to start selling again. More people will have jobs making, moving, and servicing goods in Washington State. Thousands of jobs will be saved.

In Washington, the people set interest rates. We voted in 1968 to limit interest rates to 12%. That law helped keep our economy moving.

In 1981, the Legislature listened to big banks and changed our law. Again this year, the people will decide whether they want high interest rates.

Let's get our economy moving again. Let's restore fair interest rates. VOTE "YES" 412!
Official Ballot Title:
Shall a system requiring a minimum five cent refund on sales of beer, malt and carbonated beverage containers be established?

The law as it now exists:
Beverage containers sold in Washington state are not required to carry a refund value. Nor does any law restrict the use of detachable pull-tabs on metal containers or the use of plastic rings holding devices connecting beverage containers.

The effect of Initiative No. 414, if approved into law:
The initiative would require most soft drink, beer and ale containers sold in the state to carry a refund value of not less than 5 cents. With minor exemptions, such containers would be required to be marked with their refund value.
The refund value requirement does not apply to any beverage container which is sold and delivered for use and consumption on interstate public conveyances such as buses, trains, vessels or airplanes. Containers of dairy products, vegetable or fruit juices, wine, tea or spirits would also be exempt.

Retailers of beverages solely for on-premises consumption would not be required to charge deposits or pay refunds for containers. However, most beverage dealers would be required to accept the refundable containers which are of the same kind, size and brand sold by the particular dealer and to pay the refund value in cash to the person presenting them. Dealers can, with the approval of the Department of Ecology, delegate their refund responsibilities to recycling centers located more than 1,000 yards away from the dealer.

Distributors would have the same obligation to accept and pay for containers presented as do dealers and recycling centers. Dealers and recycling centers would be entitled, in addition to the refund value, to a fee of at least 2 cents per containers from distributors.
The initiative would also prohibit detachable pull-tabs on metal containers and most plastic ring devices holding beverage containers together.

Statement for

THE PROBLEM: BOTTLE AND CAN LITTER
Our beaches, parks and roadides are being overwhelmed by litter. Broken glass and littered cans are everywhere. Children and animals get cut by them. Litter is unsightly. It ruins tires. These are only a few of the hidden costs of bottle and can litter.

THE SOLUTION: INITIATIVE 414—THE REFUND AND RECYCLING ACT
Initiative 414 is the best way to clean up bottle and can litter. Only by giving people a financial incentive not to litter will it reduce it. To pay a thirty cent deposit for a six pack may seem a lot but it is assured that people will think twice before leaving bottles and cans around. You wouldn’t toss a nickel out of your car window. With Initiative 414 people won’t toss out a bottle or can either.

REFUNDS WORKED BEFORE AND WILL NOW WORK
We all remember 15 to 20 years ago when we had deposit bottles. It worked then and it will now. If people don’t bring back the bottles and cans kids will. They’ll clean up our beaches, parks and roads just to get thenickel per container.

REFUNDS WORK IN OTHER STATES
Refund and Recycling systems are law in nine states: Oregon, Michigan, Maine, New York, Massachusetts, Iowa, Connecticut, Delaware and Vermont. Beverage container litter was reduced 83% in Oregon, 80% in Vermont, 86% in Maine and 77% in Iowa.

CONSUMER PRICES WILL SOAR
Beer and soft drink prices will soar under 414. In bottle-bill states, consumers pay, in price increases and deposits, and average of $54 more for a six-pack of beer, 446 more for soft drinks.

JOB LOSSES
At least 580 skilled jobs and 1,100 unskilled jobs in the recycling industry will be lost. Organized labor opposes 414.

RECYCLING CRIPPLED
Private recyclers, operating without government subsidy, employ 2,500 workers statewide and provide income to many non-profit groups. They need beverage container revenues to stay in business. They say 414 will cripple their industry.

SANITATION PROBLEMS
Sanitation problems will occur if nearly $1 billion unclean containers are forced back annually through our food stores, according to the Washington State Food Dealers. Grocers in forced-deposit states complain their stores are “garbage dumps.”

DEFEATED MANY TIMES
Our Legislature has rejected forced-deposit legislation 16 times. Our voters have rejected it twice. The issue has been rejected 2,100 times nationally.

414 MAKES NO SENSE
Our Model Litter & Recycling law works. Business and industry—not taxpayers—pay for its programs, which provide litter-pickup jobs for 800 youths. Most litter is paper with beverage containers totaling less than 6%. Why should consumers pay $34,000,000 annually to address 6% of the problem?

414 WILL COST YOU PLENTY...AND SOLVE NOTHING.

Rebuttal of Statement for

A Department of Ecology study just released shows bottles and cans are only 4.2% of litter. That study showed Washington is one of the cleanest states. Our Model Law works! It cleans up litter and stimulates recycling. Washington is a national recycling leader. Our award-winning hotline (1-800-RECYCLE) gets 200+ calls daily. Why destroy private recycling and spend $37,000,000 in price/sales tax increases and $77,000,000 in deposits with a 4.2% problem?

Initiative Measure 414
TO THE PEOPLE
NOTE: The ballot title and explanatory statement were written by the Attorney General as required by state law. The complete text of Initiative Measure 414 begins on page 13.
Official Ballot Title:
Shall corporate franchise taxes, measured by net income, replace sales taxes on food and state corporate business and occupation taxes?

The law as it now exists:
State law does not now impose any tax measured by net income on corporations or other businesses, and prior rulings of the state Supreme Court have invalidated earlier laws imposing such taxes. Corporations and other businesses do currently pay excise and property taxes together with license fees. The excise tax most widely imposed is the business and occupation tax which is measured by gross income and imposed at varying rates (depending on the nature of the business) which generally do not exceed 1%. In 1982 the sales and use tax on food products was reimposed with a termination date of June 30, 1983. Food which had been previously taxed was exempted from such taxes by an initiative approved by the voters in 1977.

The effect of Initiative No. 435, if approved into law:
This initiative, if upheld by the courts, would terminate, effective February 1, 1983, the sales and use tax on food products, and would impose upon corporations (other than nonprofit corporations) doing business in this state a tax measured by 10% of their net income. The annual corporate license fees would be allowed as a credit against the tax. Corporations subject to the tax imposed by the initiative would no longer pay the business and occupation tax. However, certain corporations such as public utilities and insurance companies would be subject to both the new 10% tax and those excise taxes imposed upon them under present law. Businesses other than corporations, subject to the new tax, would pay only those business taxes imposed under law.

Statement for
Initiative 435 repeals the sales tax on food, imposes a 10% franchise tax on corporate profits, and exempts corporations from the business and occupation tax. At a time of fiscal crisis in the state, Initiative 435 is a responsible choice to replace lost revenue and accomplish some important tax reforms in a single ballot measure. It is designed to: Eliminate two regressive and inequitable taxes—sales tax on food and the business and occupation tax. Replace lost revenue from these taxes; Broaden the state's tax base.

A sales tax on food is unfair. Lower and middle income families devote more of their income to food than do wealthier families. Taxing a basic necessity of life, especially during a recession when people are struggling to make ends meet, is simply wrong. We must remove the sales tax on food.

Still, the state needs revenue. The current sales tax on food is scheduled to expire on July 1, 1983, with no alternative tax to replace it. Few analysts are predicting that the recession will end before that date. Large corporations in this state will receive an estimated $1.5 billion in federal corporate tax relief which will go untaxed unless Initiative 435 passes. Initiative 435 imposes a permanent 10% corporate income tax effective January 1, 1983, that will bring in an estimated additional $231 million to the state treasury in the 1983-85 biennium.

Initiative 435 is designed to assist many small businesses. Currently, such businesses are assessed a state business and occupation tax on gross receipts, whether they make a profit or not. This discourages the development of new businesses, which often take several years to become profitable. Initiative 435 will provide substantial tax relief to these businesses at a time when it is most needed. It also shifts the tax to a truer measure of a business' worth: its net profits. If there is no profit, there is no tax.

Finally, Initiative 435 seeks to restore the mandate of Washington voters when they removed the sales tax from food by initiative in 1977. The 1982 Legislature had numerous tax options before it yet chose the one tax which the voters had recently rejected overwhelmingly.

Rebuttal of Statement against
Initiative 435 sends a clear message to Olympia: No sales tax on food now; No sales tax on food next year; No sales tax on food ever. Initiative 435 replaces the sales tax on food and the corporate business and occupation tax with a 10% tax on corporate profits. Voters must consider which is more fair: a tax on groceries, which hurts most those who can least afford it, or a tax on corporate profits.

Senate Joint Resolution 143

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT

NOTE: The ballot title and explanatory statement were written by the Attorney General as required by state law. The complete text of Senate Joint Resolution 143 begins on page 21. Vote cast by the 1982 Legislature on final passage: HOUSE: Yeas, 73; Nays, 22; Absent or not voting, 3; SENATE: Yeas, 36; Nays, 11; Absent or not voting, 2.

Official Ballot Title:
Shall financing of public improvements from taxes on increased property values as a result of such improvements be constitutionally authorized?

The law as it now exists:
Currently, any county or any city or town (municipal corporation) may construct public improvements authorized by law, within their jurisdiction. If such improvements bring about increased values in existing properties or attract new investments in the area, ad valorem (property) tax revenues from such increased property values may be greater than those taxes that would have been collected if such public improvements had not been built.

Statement for
YES ON 143 MEANS STRONG COMMUNITIES AND NO NEW TAXES
SJR 143 is a proposed amendment to the Washington State Constitution that provides a new way to raise private investment dollars for local public improvements, i.e., sidewalks, street lighting, park improvements and parking. The program is called Community Redevelopment Financing, and it has been used successfully in 28 other states to promote economic stability in areas that are deteriorating and in need of rehabilitation.

YES ON 143 MEANS NEW JOBS
SJR 143 provides for a partnership between business and local governments that will result in new construction and new jobs. In Rosemont, Illinois, private developments of hotel, office and retail structures resulted in extensive public improvements. The redevelopment projects produced 6,000 new jobs.

YES ON 143 MEANS A STRONG LOCAL ECONOMY
Declining urban areas are a fiscal drain on taxpayers and public services. New private investment in those areas will provide increased revenues, which would otherwise not be available. The revenues will first pay for the public improvements and then will be used to support local government services, relieving the property tax burden on all other taxpayers.

Rebuttal of Statement against
SJR 143 WILL NOT RAISE YOUR PROPERTY TAXES—Statistics from 28 other states prove it. SJR 143 CREATES JOBS—Both Democratic and Republican legislative leaders included it in their Economic Recovery programs. After a thorough study, it was passed by two-thirds of our state legislators and is supported by the Washington State Labor Council, State League of Women Voters, Chambers of Commerce statewide, Business and Civic Leaders. Opposition arguments are unfounded and untrue.

Statement against
SJR 143 WILL FORCE PROPERTY TAXES EVER HIGHER
Citizens living near the project area can expect to see a huge increase in their property taxes, because the increased property values associated with the public projects will force the county assessor to raise the assessments of surrounding property.

SJR 143 WILL HURT SMALL BUSINESS
Unfair competition from publicly subsidized developments will decrease profits and drive some businesses into bankruptcy.

SJR 143 WILL ELIMINATE JOBS
Tax increment financing will cause jobs to be lost due to the failure of surrounding businesses hurt by the unfair subsidized competition.

SJR 143 WILL INCREASE INTEREST RATES
The bonds authorized by SJR 143 will compete with other projects for a limited pool of investor funds, thereby driving up interest costs. The national debt is already one trillion dollars with annual interest of $100 billion. Can we really allow these astronomical costs to go still higher?

SJR 143 WILL DESTROY NEIGHBORHOODS
If SJR 143 passes, many neighborhoods will have their character radically altered or completely destroyed by the uncontrolled expansion of unnecessary or questionable projects.

Any additional or incremental property tax revenues derived from an increase in property tax values generated by a public improvement will be available for general budgetary purposes to any taxing district authorized to levy taxes on properties within its jurisdiction, the values, of which are increased by the construction and operation of a public improvement. The uniformity clause of the constitution requires a county, city or town sponsoring a public improvement to share any increase in revenue from that project with other taxing districts in which the project is also located.

Under current law the costs of some public improvements may be financed from charges and fees, other than tax revenues, for the use of the facilities themselves. If, however, a municipal corporation seeks to use general tax revenues to finance such projects, any indebtedness incurred by the project will be subject to overall constitutional and statutory limitations on the amount of local government indebtedness.

The effect of SJR 143, if approved into law:
This proposed amendment would add a new section to Article VII of the Constitution, authorizing the legislature to permit any county, city or town (municipal corporation) to create "boundaries" or districts within urban areas which will contain those real properties whose value are likely to be increased by the construction of a public improvement within a district. The constitutional amendment does not define public improvement, but limits its definition to those projects where the legislature under existing constitutional limitations has already or may in the future authorize a municipal corporation to construct and finance. Under this proposed amendment the constitutional requirement of uniformity will not prevent the legislature from authorizing a county, city or town to finance public improvements through the use of all or a portion of the property tax revenues derived from the increase in the true and fair value of real property affected by the presence of the public improvement. Bonds or other public obligations which are used to finance such public improvements and which are to be repaid solely from such tax revenues will not be subject to the limitations on general indebtedness imposed on a county, city or town by Article VIII, § 6 of the Constitution.

The amendment provides, however, that when a municipal corporation seeks in addition to pledge other tax revenues or to pledge its full faith and credit to the repayment of obligations incurred for

BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

Section 1. Section 13, chapter 236, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 5, chapter 77, Laws of 1981 and RCW 63.14.130 are each amended to read as follows:

The service charge shall be inclusive of all charges incident to investigating and making the retail installment contract or charge agreement and for the privilege of making the installment payments thereunder and no other fee, expense or charge whatsoever shall be taken, received, reserved or contracted therefor from the buyer.

(1) The service charge, in a retail installment contract, shall not exceed the highest of the following:

(a) A rate on outstanding unpaid balances (which exceeds six percentage points above the average, rounded to the nearest one-quarter of one percent, of the equivalent coupon issue yields (as published by the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco) of the bill rates for twenty-six week treasury bills for the last market auctions conducted during February, May, August, and November of the year prior to the year in which the retail installment contract is executed, or) of twelve percent per annum;

(b) A rate per month on outstanding unpaid balances of one percentage point in excess of the discount rate on ninety-day commercial paper in effect at the Federal Reserve Bank in San Francisco on the fifteenth of the month immediately preceding the month in which the contract is executed; or

(c) One dollar per month.

(2) The service charge in a retail charge agreement, revolving charge agreement, or charge agreement, shall not exceed ((one and one-half percent per month on the outstanding unpaid balances, if the service charge so computed is less than one dollar for any month, then one dollar may be charged)) the highest of the following:

(a) One percent per month on the outstanding unpaid balances:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 63.14 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) The buyer's obligation, notwithstanding the form of the evidence of the debt, arising from a sale of goods or services to a buyer by a seller which provides for a service, finance, interest, or like charge or payment in more than four installments is subject to this chapter whether or not the person ultimately entitled to enforce the buyer's obligation is the seller or another person.

(2) This section includes but is not limited to transactions in which:

(a) The seller assigns or otherwise transfers the evidence of the debt to another person who enforces the obligation including a financing organization;

(b) The form or forms used to evidence the sales transaction have been supplied or prepared by another person who enforces the obligation including a financing organization;

(c) The credit standing of the buyer is or may be evaluated by or evaluated pursuant to the instructions...
furnished by another person who enforces the obligation including a financing organization; or
(d) The sales transaction or evidence of debt is negotiated in the presence or with the assistance of a representative of another person who enforces the obligation including a financing organization.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 63.14 RCW a new section to read as follows:
In any transaction subject to this chapter, a person shall not be entitled to charge a higher rate of service or other interest charge which may be contained in any other chapter or title including, but not limited to, chapters 19.52, 31.04, 31.08, and 31.12 RCW, and Titles 30, 32, and 33 RCW.

Sec. 5. Section 1, chapter 90, Laws of 1981 and RCW 31.12.373 are each amended to read as follows:
Notwithstanding any other provision of law except chapter 63.14 RCW, a credit union may exercise any of the powers or authority conferred as of May 8, 1981, upon a federal credit union doing business in this state.

Sec. 6. Section 3, chapter 90, Laws of 1981 and RCW 31.12.377 are each amended to read as follows:
Notwithstanding any other provision of law except chapter 63.14 RCW, the supervisor may make reasonable rules authorizing a credit union to exercise any of the powers conferred at the time of the adoption of the rules upon a federal credit union doing business in this state if the supervisor finds that the exercise of the power:
(1) Serves the convenience and advantage of depositors and borrowers; and
(2) Maintains the fairness of competition and parity between state-chartered credit unions and federally-chartered credit unions.

Sec. 7. Section 1, chapter 87, Laws of 1981 and RCW 33.12.012 are each amended to read as follows:
Notwithstanding any other provision of law except chapter 63.14 RCW, a savings and loan association may exercise any of the powers conferred as of May 8, 1981, upon a federal savings and loan association doing business in this state.

Sec. 8. Section 2, chapter 87, Laws of 1981 and RCW 33.12.014 are each amended to read as follows:
Notwithstanding any other provision of law except chapter 63.14 RCW, the supervisor may make reasonable rules authorizing a savings and loan association to exercise any of the powers conferred at the time of the adoption of the rules upon a federal savings and loan association doing business in this state, or may modify or reduce reserve or other requirements if an association is insured by the federal savings and loan insurance corporation, if the supervisor finds that the exercise of the power:
(1) Serves the convenience and advantage of depositors and borrowers; and
(2) Maintains the fairness of competition and parity between state-chartered savings and loan associations and federally-chartered savings and loan associations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. There is added to chapter 30.04 RCW a new section to read as follows:
This title does not authorize a bank or trust company to engage in any practice or levy any charge prohibited by chapter 63.14 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. There is added to chapter 31.04 RCW a new section to read as follows:
This chapter does not authorize a licensee to engage in any practice or levy any charge prohibited by chapter 63.14 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. There is added to chapter 31.08 RCW a new section to read as follows:
This chapter does not authorize a licensee to engage in any practice or levy any charge prohibited by chapter 63.14 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. There is added to chapter 31.12 RCW a new section to read as follows:
This chapter does not authorize a licensee to engage in any practice or levy any charge prohibited by chapter 63.14 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. There is added to chapter 32.04 RCW a new section to read as follows:
This title does not authorize a mutual savings bank to engage in any practice or levy any charge prohibited by chapter 63.14 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. There is added to chapter 33.04 RCW a new section to read as follows:
This title does not authorize a savings and loan association to engage in any practice or levy any charge prohibited by chapter 63.14 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. (1) The state of Washington hereby declares and explicitly states that it does not want any of the provisions of the amendments contained in sections 521, 522, and 523 Part C of Public Law 96-221 to apply with respect to loans made in this state. It is the intent of the state under this section to exercise all authority granted by the Congress of the United States, and to satisfy all requirements imposed by Congress in section 525 of Part C of Public Law 96-221 for the purpose of rendering the provisions of Public Law 96-221 Title V Part C inapplicable in this state.

(2) For the purposes of this section only, the term “loan” includes all secured and unsecured loans, credit sales, forbearances, advances, renewals or other extensions of credit made by or to any person or organization.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. Section 7, chapter 77, Laws of 1981 and RCW 19.52.120 are each repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance if held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. The effective date of this act is February 1, 1983. On or after that date, this act shall apply only to loans or forbearances or transactions which are entered into after the effective date of this act or to existing loans or forbearances, contracts, or agreements to which there is an addition to the principal amount of the credit outstanding after the effective date of this act.

COMPLETE TEXT OF Initiative Measure 414

AN ACT Relating to solid waste management; establishing a minimum refund value on beverage containers to promote their reuse and recycling, adding a new chapter to Title 70 RCW; prescribing penalties; and providing effective dates.
BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the Washington State Refund Recycling Act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The people of the state of Washington find:
(1) That the failure to reuse and recycle empty beverage containers represents a waste of energy and material resources.
(2) That littering of beverage containers constitutes a public nuisance, a safety hazard, and esthetic blight and imposes upon public agencies unnecessary costs for the removal and collection of such containers.
(3) That empty beverage containers constitute a significant and growing proportion of municipal solid waste, the disposal of which imposes a financial burden on local governments.
(4) That the reuse and recycling of empty beverage containers would reduce these unnecessary burdens on individuals, local governments, and the environment.
(5) That a system requiring a refund value on the sale of all beverage containers would result in high levels of reuse and recycling of such containers, help clean up litter, save energy, increase jobs, stabilize recycling markets, need no new bureaucracy, be self-regulating, and promote a cleaner Washington.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section shall apply throughout this chapter.
(1) "Beverage" means beer, ale, or other malt drink of whatever alcoholic content, and mineral water, soda water, and similar carbonated soft drinks of any variety, in liquid form and intended for human consumption, but does not include dairy products, vegetable or fruit juices, wine, tea, or spirits.
(2) "Beverage container" means an airtight container sealed by the manufacturer and designed to contain a beverage under pressure of carbonation, including, but not limited to, containers of metal, glass, plastic, or a combination of these, but does not include cups and other open receptacles.
(3) "Consumer" means any person who purchases a beverage in a beverage container for any use other than resale.
(4) "Dealer" means any person, including the operator of a vending machine, who sells, offers to sell, or engages in the sale of beverages in beverage containers to consumers in this state.
(5) "Department" means the department of ecology of the state of Washington.
(6) "Distributor" means any person who sells or offers for sale beverages in beverage containers to a dealer in this state, including any manufacturer who engages in such sales.
(7) "Manufacturer" means any person bottling, canning, or otherwise filling beverage containers for sale to distributors or dealers.
(8) "Recycling center" means an operation at a specific location or related service, which is registered with the department, where any person may redeem the amount of the refund value for any empty beverage container.
(9) "Recycling operation" means a system requiring a refund value on the sale of all beverage containers.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) Every beverage container sold or offered for sale to a consumer in this state shall have a refund value of not less than five cents.
(2) Except as provided in subsections (3) and (4) of this section, every beverage container sold or offered for sale in this state by a dealer shall clearly and prominently indicate the refund value by embossing, stamping, labeling, or other method of secure attachment to the beverage container on a place other than the container's bottom.
(3) The requirement in subsection (2) of this section does not apply to refillable glass beverage containers manufactured before July 1, 1984, which have a brand name permanently marked on them and a refund value of not less than five cents.
(4) The provisions of this section providing for a refund value shall not apply to any container which is sold and delivered for use and consumption on interstate public conveyances such as busses, trains, vessels, or airplanes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Except as provided in section 6 of this act:
(1) A dealer, or a recycling center established to provide the total refund service for a dealer, may not refuse to accept from any person any empty beverage container of the kind, size, and brand sold by the dealer or refuse to pay in cash upon request to that person, the refund value of the beverage container as established under section 4 of this act.
(2) A dealer may locate the refund and storage operations separate from the enclosed retail store area if such operations are on or adjacent to the dealer's premises, or if such operations have been arranged with a local recycling center that is near the dealer and within a convenient distance for the consumer, as defined by the department, but not more than one thousand yards away.
(3) A distributor may not refuse to accept from a dealer or a recycling center any empty beverage container of the kind, size, or brand sold by the distributor in this state, or refuse to pay the dealer or recycling center the refund value of the beverage container as established in section 4 of this act.
(4) In addition to the payment of the refund value, the distributor accepting beverage containers under subsection (2) of this section shall reimburse the dealer or recycling center for handling the beverage containers in an amount of twenty percent of such refund value, but not less than two cents per container.
(5) The department shall review the adequacy of the amount of reimbursement given to recycling centers and dealers under subsection (3) of this section and shall submit any recommended changes to the regular sessions of the Washington state legislature.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) A dealer, recycling center, or distributor may refuse to accept any empty beverage container which does not state thereon the refund value as established under section 4 of this act, which contains material foreign to the normal contents of the container, or which, if glass, is broken.
(2) A dealer may establish reasonable hours when a quantity of containers in excess of forty-eight will be accepted from any one consumer, and may then refuse to accept such quantities during other hours.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. No beverage shall be sold or offered for sale to consumers in this state:
(1) In a metal beverage container a part of which is
AN ACT Relating to revenue and taxation; adding a new title to the Revised Code of Washington to be designated Title 82A; adding a new section to chapter 82.04 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 82.08 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 82.12 RCW; creating new sections; repealing section 28, chapter . . . (SB 4250), Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. and RCW 82.08 . . . ; repealing section 29, chapter . . . (SB 4250), Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. and RCW 82.12 . . . ; repealing section 33, chapter . . . (SB 4250), Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. and RCW 82.12 . . . ; prescribing penalties; and providing effective dates.

NEW SECTION. Section 1. Domestic corporations of this state and foreign corporations admitted to do an intrastate business in this state are privileged to carry on innumerable and profitable activities in this state in a corporate form. These corporations are currently subject to nominal and discriminatory annual corporate privilege fees. These fees are limited in amount, have a regressive impact on the smaller corporations, and are measured by authorized capital stock which bears little or no relationship to the extent and to the profitability of the business opportunities afforded corporations by this state.

The purpose of this title is to give recognition to the fact that the privilege of engaging in business activities in this state as a corporation, regardless of the characterization of these activities for commerce clause purposes, is a substantial privilege for which commensurate fees or taxes should be charged. Inasmuch as the profitability of the corporation is a true indication of the nature and extent of the privileges enjoyed, it is the intention of this title to measure the corporate privilege fee by the net income derived by a corporation from the activities it carries on in this state. In order that corporations who do not conduct any intrastate business in this state may be subject to an equivalent tax for comparable privileges but which cannot, because of the commerce clause of the United States Constitution, be subjected to a corporate privilege fee, there is also imposed a compensating tax on corporations doing only an interstate business in this state.

To assure that all corporations pay some fee for the privilege of conducting business activity in this state, the existing corporate fees are not affected by this title. Any existing annual corporate privilege fee, however, is credited against the corporate privilege fee imposed by this title.

If the compensating tax imposed on corporations doing an interstate business in this state is declared invalid, it is nevertheless intended that the corporate privilege fee be imposed pursuant to this title on all profit corporations conducting any intrastate business activity in this state.

PART A
DEFINITIONS—CONSTRUCTION RULES

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) CONSTRUCTION—MEANING OF TERMS. Except as otherwise expressly provided or clearly appearing from the context, any term used in this title shall have the same meaning as when used in a comparable context in the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1954 and amendments thereto or any successor law or laws relating to federal income taxes and other provisions of the statutes of the United States relating to federal income taxes as such code, laws, and statutes are in effect upon the effective date of this section.

(2) GENERALLY. (a) INTENT. It is the intention of this title that the income which constitutes the measure of the corporate privilege fee and compensating tax be the same as taxable income as defined and applicable to the subject taxpayer for the same tax year in the Internal Revenue Code, except as otherwise expressly provided in this title.
(b) DISPOSITION OF REVENUES. All revenues derived from the taxes imposed by this title shall be deposited in the state general fund.

(3) SHORT TITLE. This title may be known and cited as the "Washington Corporate Franchise and Compensating Tax Code."

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. DEFINITIONS AND RULES OF INTERPRETATION. When used in this title where not otherwise distinctly expressed or manifestly incompatible with the intent thereof:

(1) "Corporation" means, in addition to an incorporated entity, and association, trust, or any unincorporated organization which is defined as a corporation in the Internal Revenue Code and in substance exercises the privileges of a corporation such as limited liability and issuance of evidences of ownership.

(2) "Department" means the department of revenue of this state.

(3) "Director" means the director of revenue of this state.

(4) "Financial organization" means any bank, trust company, savings bank, industrial bank, land bank, safe deposit company, private banker, savings and loan association, building and loan association, bank holding company as defined in section 1841, chapter 17, Title 12 of the laws of the United States, credit union, currency exchange, cooperative bank, small loan company, sales finance company, or investment company, and any other corporation at least ninety percent of whose assets consist of intangible property and at least ninety percent of whose gross income consists of dividends or interest or other charges resulting from the use of money or credit.

(5) "Fiscal year" means an accounting period of twelve months ending on the last day of any month other than December.

(6) "Foreign corporation" means a corporation organized under the laws of a foreign country or a corporation organized under the laws of any state or the United States which is domiciled in a foreign country.

(7) "Income" means gross income as defined in section 61 of the Internal Revenue Code and includes all items there set forth which the taxpayer is required to include in the computation of its federal income tax liability after the effective date of this section subject to the specific deductions and other adjustments required by this title to arrive at "net income" and "taxable income."

(8) "Internal Revenue Code" means the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1954 or any successor law or laws relating to federal income taxes in effect upon the effective date of this section.

(9) "Net income" means taxable income prior to application of the apportionment provisions of this title.

(10) "Net income tax" means a tax imposed or measured, in whole or in part, on the net income of the taxpayer.

(11) "Person" means a corporation, or any of its officers or employees when so indicated in the context in which the term "person" occurs.

(12) "Returns" includes declarations of estimated tax required under this title.

(13) "Sales" means all gross receipts of the taxpayer.

(14) "State" means any state of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, any territory or possession of the United States, or any political subdivision of any of the foregoing.

(15) "Fee" or "tax" includes interest and penalties, unless the intention to give it a more limited meaning is disclosed by the context.

(16) "Federal taxable income" means, unless specifically defined otherwise in this title, income required to be reported to and subject to tax by the United States government under section 63 of the Internal Revenue Code plus any special deductions for dividends by sections 241, 243, 244, 245, 246, and 247 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(17) "Taxable year" or "tax year" means the calendar year, or the fiscal year ending during the calendar year, upon the basis of which the taxable income is computed under this title. "Taxable year" or "tax year" means, in the case of a return made for a fractional part of a year under this title, the period for which the return is made.

(18) "Taxpayer" means any corporation subject to the fee or tax imposed by this title.

PART B
IMPOSITION PROVISIONS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. FEE IMPOSED ON CORPORATIONS DOING BUSINESS IN THIS STATE. Upon and after January 1, 1983, there is imposed and levied on every corporation, for the privilege of doing or conducting any business in this state as a corporation or exercising or having the privilege of exercising any corporate franchise or privilege in this state, an annual corporate privilege fee measured by ten percent of the taxable income of the corporation. The fee is in addition to the corporate privilege fees imposed by RCW 23A.32.073, 23A.32.075, 23A.40.040, and 23A.40.060 (subject to the credit provisions contained in section 25(2) of this act).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. COMPENSATING TAX IMPOSED ON CORPORATIONS NOT SUBJECT TO THE PRIVILEGE FEE IMPOSED BY SECTION 4. Upon and after January 1, 1983, for the privilege of receiving, earning or otherwise acquiring income from any source whatsoever subsequent to December 31, 1982, there is levied and imposed on every corporation not subject to the corporate privilege fee imposed by section 4 of this act, an annual compensating tax equal to ten percent of the corporation's taxable income.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. INCIDENCE OF PRIVILEGE FEE. Upon and after January 1, 1983, the corporate privilege fee imposed on corporations by section 4 of this act shall be paid by every corporation, unless expressly exempted by this title, which conducts any activity in this state for which this state can constitutionally impose any corporate privilege fee. Liability for the corporate privilege fee imposed by section 4 of this act shall commence at the time the activity is conducted in this state or the date any corporation is authorized by the corporate laws of this state to do business in this state, whichever is earlier, and shall cease only when a corporation ceases to conduct any activity in this state for which this state can constitutionally impose any corporate privilege fee or the date a corporation ceases to be qualified to do business in this state, whichever is later.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. INCIDENCE OF COMPENSATING TAX. Upon and after January 1, 1983, the compensating tax imposed by section 5 of this act shall be paid by every corporation, not subject to the corporate privilege fee and not expressly exempt under this title, which conducts any activity in this state or derives any income from sources within or attributable to this state for which this state can constitutionally impose an income tax. Liability for the compensating tax shall commence at the time and continue for the period of time any such corporation conducts any such activity in this state or derives any such income from this state and is not also subject to the corporate privilege fee imposed by section 4 of this act on such activity or measured by such income.

PART C
TAXABLE INCOME

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. TAXABLE INCOME DEFINED. (1) "Taxable income" for the purpose of computing the corporate franchise privilege fee and the compensating tax means federal taxable income subject to the following adjustments:

(a) Add taxes on or measured by net income to the extent the taxes have been excluded or deducted from gross income in the computation of federal taxable income.

(b) Add the amount of any deduction taken under section 613A of the Internal Revenue Code.

(c) Add an amount equal to all amounts paid or accrued to the taxpayer as interest or dividends during the taxable year to the extent excluded from gross income or deducted in the computation of federal taxable income.

(d) Add in the case of a Western Hemisphere trade corporation, China Trade Act corporation, or possessions company described in section 931(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, an amount equal to the amount deducted or excluded from gross income in the computation of federal taxable income for the taxable year on account of the special deductions and exclusions (but in the case of a possessions company, net of the deductions allocable thereto) allowed these corporations under the Internal Revenue Code.

(e) Any adjustments resulting from the apportionment provisions of this title and the accounting provisions of section 26 of this act.

(2) If, for the taxable year of a corporation, there is in effect an election under section 992(b) of the Internal Revenue Code or the corporation is treated as a domestic international sales corporation as defined in section 992(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code, the corporation is subject to the privilege fee or compensating tax imposed by this title on its taxable income as defined and accounted for in the Internal Revenue Code for the corporation, subject to the adjustments contained in this section.

PART D
APPORTIONMENT PROVISIONS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. ADJUSTMENTS TO TAXABLE INCOME — APPORTIONMENT RULES. (1) IN GENERAL. (a) All of the net income of any corporation which is not taxable in another state shall be apportioned to this state.

(b) Any corporation which is taxable in this state and another state shall apportion its net income as provided in this title.

(2) TAXABLE IN ANOTHER STATE. For purposes of apportionment of net income under this title, a corporation is taxable in another state if that state has jurisdiction to subject the corporation (a) to a corporate privilege fee if the corporation is taxable under section 4 of this act, or (b) to a net income tax if the corporation is taxable under section 5 of this act.

If a corporation has not filed a net income tax return in another state for the tax year and that state imposes a net income tax, unless the corporation is expressly exempted from that state's net income tax, the corporation is deemed not to be subject to either a corporate privilege fee or net income tax in that state for that tax year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. APPORTIONMENT OF NET INCOME. All net income, other than net income from transportation services and financial organizations, shall be apportioned to this state by multiplying the net income by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the sales factor, excluding any negligible factor, and the denominator of which is three reduced by the number of negligible factors. "Negligible factor" means a factor the denominator of which is less than ten percent of one-third of the taxpayer's gross income.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. PROPERTY FACTOR. The property factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the average value of the taxpayer's real and tangible personal property owned and used or rented and used in this state during the tax period, and the denominator of which is the average value of all the taxpayer's real and tangible personal property owned and used or rented and used in all states in which the taxpayer is taxable for the tax year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. VALUATION OF PROPERTY — RENTED PROPERTY. Property owned by the taxpayer is valued at its original cost. Property rented by the taxpayer is valued at eight times the net annual rental rate. Net annual rental rate is the annual rental rate paid by the taxpayer less any annual rental rate received by the taxpayer from subrentals but not less than zero.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. AVERAGE VALUE OF PROPERTY. The average value of property shall be determined by averaging the values at the beginning and ending of the tax period but the director may require the averaging of monthly values during the tax period if reasonably required to properly reflect the average value of the taxpayer's property.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. PAYROLL FACTOR. The payroll factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the total amount paid in the state during the tax period by the taxpayer for compensation, and the denominator of which is the total compensation paid in all states in which the taxpayer is taxable for the tax year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. COMPENSATION PAID WITHIN STATE. Compensation is paid in this state if:

(1) The individual's service is performed entirely within the state; or

(2) The individual's service is performed both within and without the state, but the service performed within the state is incidental to the individual's service within the state; or

(3) Some of the service is performed within the state and:

(a) The base of operations, or if there is no base of operations, the place from which the service is directed or controlled is in the state; or

(b) The base of operations or the place from which the service is directed or controlled is not in any state in which some part of the service is performed, but the individual's residence is in this state.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. SALES FACTOR. The sales factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the total sales of the taxpayer in this state during the tax year, and the denominator of which is the total sales of the taxpayer in all states. “Sales”, as used in this section means all gross receipts from:

(1) Sales of tangible personal property;
(2) Rentals of tangible personal property;
(3) Sales of real property held for sale in the ordinary course of a taxpayer’s trade or business;
(4) Rentals of real property; and
(5) Sales of services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. SALES OF TANGIBLE PERSONALITY, REAL PROPERTY, RENTALS, AND SERVICES WITHIN STATE. (1) Sales of tangible personal property are in this state if:

(a) The property is delivered or shipped to a purchaser, other than the United States government, within this state regardless of the f.o.b. point or other conditions of the sale; or

(b) The property is shipped from an office, store, warehouse, factory, or other place of storage in this state and (i) the purchaser is the United States government or (ii) the taxpayer is not taxable in the state of the purchaser; or

(c) The sale is made from an office located in this state to a purchaser (including the United States government) in another state in which the taxpayer is not taxable and the property is shipped to the purchaser from a state in which the taxpayer is not taxable.

(2) Sales and rentals of real property are in this state if the property is located in this state.

(3) Rentals of tangible personal property are in this state to the extent that the property is used in this state.

(4) Sales of services are in this state to the extent that the service is performed in this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. INTERSTATE TRANSPORTATION SERVICES. The taxable income of a taxpayer whose activities consist of transportation services for hire rendered partly within this state and partly within another state shall be determined under sections 19 through 22 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. INTERSTATE TRANSPORTATION OTHER THAN OIL OR GAS BY PIPELINE OR AIR CARRIERS—APPORTIONMENT. In the case of net income from transportation services other than that derived from the transportation service of oil or gas by pipeline or air carriers, the net income attributable to Washington sources is that portion of the net income of the taxpayer derived from transportation services whatever performed that the revenue miles of the taxpayer in Washington bear to the revenue miles of the taxpayer in all the states in which the taxpayer is taxable on the services for the tax year. A revenue mile means the transportation for a consideration of one ton in weight or one passenger the distance of one mile. The net income attributable to Washington sources in the case of a taxpayer engaged in the transportation both of property and of individuals shall be that portion of the entire net income of the taxpayer which is equal to the average of his passenger miles and ton mile fractions, separately computed and individually weighted by the ratio of gross receipts from passenger transportation to total gross receipts from all transportation, and by the ratio of gross receipts from freight transportation to total gross receipts from all transportation, respectively.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. INTERSTATE TRANSPORTATION OF OIL BY PIPELINE—APPORTIONMENT. In the case of net income derived from the transportation of oil by pipeline, net income attributable to Washington shall be that portion of the net income of the taxpayer derived from the pipeline transportation of oil in all the states in which the taxpayer is taxable for the tax year that the thousand cubic feet miles transported in Washington bear to the thousand cubic feet miles transported by the taxpayer in all the states in which the taxpayer is taxable for the tax year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. INTERSTATE TRANSPORTATION OF GAS BY PIPELINE—APPORTIONMENT. In the case of net income derived from the transportation of gas by pipeline, net income attributable to Washington shall be that portion of the net income of the taxpayer derived from the pipeline transportation of gas in all the states in which the taxpayer is taxable for the tax year that the thousand cubic feet miles transported in Washington bear to the thousand cubic feet miles transported by the taxpayer in all the states in which the taxpayer is taxable for the tax year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. AIR CARRIERS—APPORTIONMENT. In the case of net income derived by a taxpayer as a carrier by aircraft, the portion of net income of the carrier attributable to Washington shall be the average of the following two percentages:

(1) The revenue tons handled by the air carrier at airports within this state for the tax year divided by the total revenue tons handled by the carrier at airports in all states in which the taxpayer is taxable for the tax year; and

(2) The air carrier’s originating revenue within this state for the tax year divided by the total originating revenue of the carrier from all states in which the taxpayer is taxable for the tax year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. FINANCIAL ORGANIZATIONS—APPORTIONMENT. The net income of a financial organization attributable to Washington sources shall be taken to be:

(1) In the case of net income of a taxpayer whose activities are confined solely to this state, the entire net income of the taxpayer.

(2) In the case of net income of a taxpayer who conducts activities as a financial organization partially within and partially without this state, that portion of its net income as its gross business in this state is to its gross business in all the states in which the taxpayer is taxable for the same tax year, which portion shall be determined as the sum of:

(a) Fees, commissions, or other compensation for financial services rendered within this state;

(b) Gross profits from trading in stocks, bonds, or other securities managed within this state;

(c) Interest and dividends received within this state;

(d) Interest charged to customers at places of business maintained within this state for carrying debit balances of margin accounts, without deduction of any costs incurred in carrying the accounts; and

(e) Any other gross income resulting from the operation as a financial organization within this state, divided by the aggregate amount of the items of the taxpayer in all states in which the taxpayer is taxable for the tax year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. EXCEPTIONS. (1) If the apportionment provisions of this title do not fairly represent the extent of the taxpayer’s activities in this state, the taxpayer may petition for or the director may require, if reasonable:
(a) The exclusion of any one or more of the factors;
(b) The inclusion of one or more additional factors or the substitution of one or more factors; or
(c) The employment of any other method to effectuate an equitable apportionment.

(2) If the apportionment provisions of this title in combination with allocation and apportionment provisions of other states in which a corporation is required to pay a tax on or measured by net income results in the apportionment or allocation of more than one hundred percent of the corporation’s taxable income for the same year, the director may make any adjustment to the apportionment provisions of this title he deems will fairly represent the corporation’s income attributable to this state in light of the attribution rules of other states in which the taxpayer is required to pay a tax on or measured by net income of the same tax year.

PART E
CREDITS AND EXEMPTIONS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. (1) EXEMPTIONS. A corporation organized for any purpose set forth in RCW 24.03.015 and whose property or income does not inure directly or indirectly to the private benefit or gain of any individual or shareholder shall be exempt from the corporate privilege fee and compensating tax imposed by this title.

(2) CREDITS. The amount of any annual privilege fees paid by any corporation under RCW 23A.32.075 and 23A.40.060 is allowed as a credit against the privilege fee imposed by this title for the same taxable year.

PART F
ACCOUNTING PROVISIONS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. COMBINED REPORTING - ADMINISTRATIVE ADJUSTMENTS. (1) In the case of a corporation liable to report under this title owning or controlling, either directly or indirectly, another corporation, or other corporations except foreign corporations, and in the case of a corporation liable to report under this title and owned or controlled, either directly or indirectly, by another corporation except a foreign corporation, the department may require a combined or consolidated report showing the combined taxable income and apportionment factors of the controlled group, except foreign corporations, and any other information it deems necessary to ascertain the taxable income of any corporation subject to either the corporate privilege fee or the compensating tax. The department may, in such manner as it may determine, assess the tax against the corporations which are liable to report under this title and whose taxable income is involved in the report upon the basis of the combined entire taxable income; or it may adjust the tax in such other manner as it determines to be equitable if it determines the adjustment is necessary to prevent evasion of fees or taxes or to reflect the income earned by the corporations from business done in this state. Direct or indirect ownership or control of more than fifty percent of the voting stock of a corporation constitutes ownership or control for purposes of this section.

(2) If two or more organizations, trades, or businesses (whether or not incorporated, whether or not organized in or having income from sources allocable to this state, and whether or not affiliated) are owned or controlled directly or indirectly by the same interests, the department may distribute, apportion, or allocate income, deductions, credits, or allowances between or among the organizations, trades, or businesses if it determines that the distribution, apportionment, or allocation is necessary to prevent evasion of the corporate privilege fee or compensating tax imposed by this title.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. METHOD OF ACCOUNTING. (1) For purposes of the computation of the corporate privilege fee and compensating tax imposed under this title, a corporation’s method of accounting shall be the same as the corporation’s method of accounting for federal income tax purposes. If no method of accounting is regularly used by a corporation, taxable income for purposes of this title shall be computed under a method prescribed by or acceptable to the department.

(2) It is the intent of this title that taxable income for the subject taxpayer for computation of the corporate privilege fee and the compensating tax be ascertained and returned as provided in this title on the same accounting method or methods used by the taxpayer in computing his federal income tax liability.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 28. TAX RETURNS FOR PARTIAL YEAR. If the first taxable year of any corporation with respect to which a fee or tax is imposed by this title ends prior to December 31st of the calendar year, the taxable income for this fractional taxable year shall be the taxpayer’s taxable income, computed in accordance with the otherwise applicable provisions of this title, for the entire taxable year, adjusted as follows:

(1) The taxable income shall be multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days in the fractional taxable year, and the denominator of which is the number of days in the entire taxable year; or

(2) If the taxpayer so elects, the taxable income shall be adjusted, in accordance with rules of the department, so as to include only such income and be reduced only by such deductions as are attributable to this fractional taxable year, as can be clearly determined from the permanent records of the taxpayer.

PART G
ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 29. STARTING DATE - TIME AND MANNER OF PAYMENT. (1) The corporate privilege fee and compensating tax is due and payable in reference to the taxable income, as defined by this title, which is earned, received, or otherwise acquired by any corporation subject to the fee or tax imposed by this title after December 31, 1982, for federal income tax purposes.

(2) The time and manner of payment of the fee or tax imposed by this title shall be in accordance with the Internal Revenue Code (including the provisions relating to installment payments of estimated income tax) and the regulations promulgated thereunder providing for the time and manner of the payment of the federal income tax: PROVIDED, That the department by regulation may make these modifications and exceptions to such provisions as it deems necessary to facilitate the prompt and efficient collection of the fee or tax.

(3) Regardless of any extension of time granted for filing a final federal income tax for any tax year, the corporate privilege fee imposed by section 4 of this act shall be paid at the time the corporation files its annual report with the secretary of state or any successor officer. No corporation may be qualified to do business in this state if it is delinquent in the payment of the corporate privilege fee imposed by section 4 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 30. GENERAL ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS. The general administrative provisions pertaining to the compliance, enforcement, and administration of tax laws administered by the department contained in the following sections of chapter 82.32 RCW are applicable to this title: RCW 82.32.050 (except references therein to registration), 82.32.060, 82.32.070 (except the last paragraph), 82.32.090, 82.32.100 (except reference therein to registration), 82.32.105, 82.32.110, 82.32.120, 82.32.130, 82.32.140, 82.32.150, 82.32.160, 82.32.170, 82.32.190, 82.32.200, first paragraph of 82.32.210, 82.32.220, 82.32.230, 82.32.235, 82.32.240, 82.32.260, 82.32.290 (except references therein to certificates of registration), 82.32.300, 82.32.310, 82.32.320, 82.32.330, 82.32.340, 82.32.350, 82.32.360, and 82.32.380.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 31. BOARD OF TAX APPEALS - JURISDICTION. Jurisdiction is hereby conferred on the state board of tax appeals to review any claim for refund or deficiency assessment of either the corporate privilege fee or compensating tax imposed by this title. In all cases under this section:

(1) The taxpayer or the department may elect either a formal or informal hearing according to rules of practice and procedure promulgated by the board; and

(2) RCW 82.03.100 through 82.03.120, RCW 82.03.150 through 82.03.170 and RCW 82.03.190 shall apply with respect to hearings and decisions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 32. JUDICIAL REVIEW ON APPEAL FROM BOARD. Within thirty days after the final decision of the board in a case in which it has jurisdiction and in which a formal hearing has been elected, the taxpayer or the department may appeal to the court of appeals or the state supreme court as provided by law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 33. TAX COMPACT. To the extent that Article IV of chapter 82.36 RCW is in conflict with sections 9 through 24 of this act, the article is hereby superseded.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 34. There is added to chapter 82.04 RCW a new section to read as follows:

A corporation, as defined in section 3 of this act, which is subject to a corporate privilege fee or compensating tax under Title 8A RCW is exempt from the provisions of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 35. There is added to chapter 82.08 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) The tax levied by RCW 82.08.020 shall not apply to sales of food products for human consumption.

“Food products” include cereals and cereal products, oleomargarine, meat and meat products, fish and fish products, eggs and egg products, vegetables and vegetable products, fruit and fruit products, spices and salt, sugar and sugar products, coffee and coffee substitutes, tea, cocoa and cocoa products.

“Food products” include milk and milk products, milk shakes, malted milks, and any other similar type beverages which are composed at least in part of milk or a milk product and which require the use of milk or a milk product in their preparation.

“Food products” include all fruit juices, vegetable juices, and other beverages except bottled water, spirituous, malt or vinous liquors or carbonated beverages, whether liquid or frozen.

“Food products” do not include medicines and preparations in liquid, powdered, granular, tablet, capsule, lozenge, and pill form sold as dietary supplements or adjuncts.

The exemption of “food products” provided for in this paragraph shall not apply: (a) When the food products are furnished, prepared, or served for consumption at tables, chairs, or counters or from trays, glasses, dishes, or other tableware whether provided by the retailer or by a person with whom the retailer contracts to furnish, prepare, or serve food products to others, except for food products furnished as meals under a state administered nutrition program for the aged as provided for in the Older American Act (P.L. 95-478 Title III) and RCW 74.38.040(6), or (b) when the food products are ordinarily sold for immediate consumption on or near a location at which parking facilities are provided primarily for the use of patrons in consuming the products purchased at the location, even though such products are sold on a “takeout” or “to go” order and are actually packaged or wrapped and taken from the premises of the retailer, or (c) when the food products are sold for consumption within a place, the entrance to which is subject to an admission charge, except for national and state parks and monuments.

(2) Subsection (1) of this section notwithstanding, the retail sale of food products is subject to sales tax under RCW 82.08.020 if the food products are sold through a vending machine, and in this case the selling price for purposes of RCW 82.08.020 is fifty-seven percent of the gross receipts.

This subsection does not apply to hot prepared food products, other than food products which are heated after they have been dispensed from the vending machine.

For tax collected under this subsection, the requirements that the tax be collected from the buyer and that the amount of tax be stated as a separate item are waived.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 36. There is added to chapter 82.12 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The provisions of this chapter shall not apply in respect to the use of food products for human consumption.

“Food products” include cereals and cereal products, oleomargarine, meat and meat products, fish and fish products, eggs and egg products, vegetables and vegetable products, fruit and fruit products, spices and salt, sugar and sugar products, coffee and coffee substitutes, tea, cocoa and cocoa products.

“Food products” include milk and milk products, milk shakes, malted milks, and any other similar type beverages which are composed at least in part of milk or a milk product and which require the use of milk or a milk product in their preparation.

“Food products” include all fruit juices, vegetable juices, and other beverages except bottled water, spirituous, malt or vinous liquors or carbonated beverages, whether liquid or frozen.

“Food products” do not include medicines and preparations in liquid, powdered, granular, tablet, capsule, lozenge, and pill form sold as dietary supplements or adjuncts.

The exemption of “food products” provided for in this chapter shall not apply: (a) When the food products are furnished, prepared, or served for consumption at tables,

COMPLETE TEXT OF Senate Joint Resolution 143

BE IT RESOLVED, BY THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON, IN LEGISLATIVE SESSION ASSEMBLED:

THAT, At the next general election to be held in this state there shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the state for their approval and ratification, or rejection, an amendment to Article VII of the state Constitution by adding a new section to read as follows:

Article VII, section . . . . Notwithstanding any provision of this Constitution, the legislature may by general law authorize the legislative authority of any county, city, or town to create boundaries in urban areas, within its jurisdiction, containing only that real property which is determined will be increased in true and fair value by reason of specified public improvements to redevelop areas within those boundaries, and may provide that all or a portion of the ad valorem taxes levied within those boundaries against increases in the true and fair value of such real property may be used to pay for the specified public improvements or to pay public obligations incurred to fund the specified public improvements. Public obligations incurred for these public improvements and payable solely from revenues from these public improvements and such ad valorem taxes levied against the increases in real property value shall not constitute general indebtedness.

For the purposes of this section, "ad valorem taxes" means:
(1) Ad valorem taxes subject to the aggregate limitation on tax levies by the state and all taxing districts in section 2 of this Article; and
(2) Ad valorem taxes levied by port districts and public utility districts, except for ad valorem taxes levied specifically for the purpose of making required payments of principal and interest on general indebtedness.

Nothing in this section authorizes the provision of public improvements which counties, cities, and towns may not otherwise provide.

Nothing in this section authorizes a county, city, or town to exercise powers of eminent domain contrary to the provisions of Article I, section 16.

Nothing in this section authorizes a county, city, or town to pledge all or part of its full faith and credit or any other tax revenues without complying with the laws relating to the incurring of general indebtedness, including Article VIII, section 1 and Article VIII, section 6, or to aggregate tax levies in excess of the limitation on levies in section 2 of this Article: PROVIDED, That no bonds that constitute general indebtedness and which use the funding mechanism contained in this section shall be issued to fund all or a portion of such specified public improvements unless a public hearing on the issue of such bonds is held prior to the time boundaries are created pursuant to this section. The notice for such a public hearing shall include: (1) A statement that the county, city, or town must pledge its full faith and credit toward the payment of any general indebtedness which uses the funding mechanism contained in this section; (2) A statement that in the absence of sufficient revenues under this funding mechanism, the debt service must be made from then existing taxes or other revenues, which may result in an increase in taxes or reduction in existing programs; and (3) An estimate of the dollar amount of debt service on such bonds per year, and an estimate of the total principal and interest payments required for the full term of the bonds. The use of the funding mechanism contained in this section to pay principal and interest on general indebtedness, which is not required to be approved by the voters pursuant to Article VIII, section 6, shall be subject to potential referendum approval by simple majority vote of the voters of the county, city, or town.

After the initial adoption of a law by the legislature authorizing the use of ad valorem taxes levied against increases in the true and fair value of real property to finance specified public improvements, no amendment to such act which expands the nature of the areas within which ad valorem taxes levied against increases in the true and fair value of real property may be used to finance specified public improvements, or adds to the purposes and types of public improvements that may be financed with such revenues, or reduces the requirements which must be met if public obligations are incurred to fund the specified public improvements, shall be valid unless the amendment is enacted by a favorable vote of three-fifths of the members elected to each house of the legislature and is subject to referendum petition.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the secretary of state shall cause notice of the foregoing constitutional amendment to be published at least four times during the four weeks next preceding the election in every legal newspaper in the state.

SPECIAL NOTE: The following is the complete text of Chapter 42, Laws of 1982, First Extraordinary Session. Although this measure will not be voted upon at the state general election on November 2, it contains the implementing statutes for Senate Joint Resolution 143 and will become effective if that proposed constitutional amendment is approved by a majority of the voters. The text of this law is included to facilitate each voter's understanding of the effect of the adoption of that proposed amendment to the state constitution.

AN ACT Relating to public improvements financing; adding a new chapter to Title 39 RCW; and adding a new section to chapter 84.55 RCW.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. SHORT TITLE. This chapter may be known and cited as the Community Redevelopment Financing Act of 1982.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. DECLARATION. It is declared to be the public policy of the state of Washington to promote and facilitate the orderly development and economic stability of its urban areas. The provision of adequate government services and the creation of employment opportunities for the citizens within urban areas depends upon the economic growth and the strength of their tax base. The construction of necessary public improvements in accordance with local community planning will encourage investment in job-producing private development and will expand the public tax base.

It is the purpose of this chapter to allocate a portion of regular property taxes for limited periods of time to assist in the financing of public improvements which are needed to encourage private development of urban areas; to prevent or arrest the decay of urban areas due to the inability of existing financing methods to provide needed public improvements; to encourage local taxing districts to cooperate in the allocation of future tax revenues arising in urban areas in order to facilitate the long-term growth of their common tax base; and to encourage private investment within urban areas.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. DEFINITIONS. As used in this chapter the following terms have the following meanings unless a different meaning is clearly indicated by the context:

(1) “Apportionment district” means the geographic area, within an urban area, from which regular property taxes are to be apportioned to finance a public improvement contained therein.

(2) “Assessed value of real property” means the valuation of real property as placed on the last completed assessment roll of the county.

(3) “City” means any city or town.

(4) “Ordinance” means any appropriate method of taking a legislative action by a county or city, whether known as a statute, resolution, ordinance, or otherwise.

(5) “Public improvement” means an undertaking to provide public facilities in an urban area which the sponsor has authority to provide.

(6) “Public improvement costs” means the costs of design, planning, acquisition, site preparation, construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation, installation of the public improvement; costs of relocation, maintenance, and operation of property pending construction of the public improvement; costs of utilities relocated as a result of the public improvement; costs of financing, including interest during construction, legal and other professional services, taxes, and insurance; costs incurred by the assessor to revalue real property for the purpose of determining the tax allocation base value that are in excess of costs incurred by the assessor in accordance with his revaluation plan under chapter 84.41 RCW, and the costs of apportioning the taxes and complying with this chapter and other applicable law; and administrative costs reasonably necessary and related to these costs. These costs may include costs incurred prior to the adoption of the public improvement ordinance, but subsequent to the effective date of this act.

(7) “Public improvement ordinance” means the ordinance passed under section 5(4) of this act.

(8) “Regular property taxes” means regular property taxes as now or hereafter defined in RCW 84.04.140, except regular property taxes levied by port districts or public utility districts specifically for the purpose of making required payments of principal and interest on general indebtedness.

(9) “Sponsor” means any county or city initiating and undertaking a public improvement.

(10) “Tax allocation base value of real property” means the true and fair value of real property within an apportionment district for the year in which the apportionment district was established.

(11) “Tax allocation bonds” means any bonds, notes, or other obligations issued by a sponsor pursuant to section 10 of this act.

(12) “Tax allocation revenues” means those tax revenues allocated to a sponsor under section 6(1)(b) of this act.

(13) “Taxing districts” means any governmental entity which levies or has levied for it regular property taxes upon real property located within a proposed or approved apportionment district.

(14) “Value of taxable property” means value of taxable property as defined in RCW 39.36.015.

(15) “Urban area” means an area in a city or located outside of a city that is characterized by intensive use of the land for the location of structures and receiving such urban services as sewers, water, and other public utilities and services normally associated with urbanized areas. Not more than twenty-five percent of the area within the urban area proposed apportionment district may be vacant land.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. AUTHORITY—LIMITATIONS. (1) Only public improvements which are determined by the legislative authority of the sponsor to meet the following criteria are eligible to be financed under this chapter:

(a) The public improvement is located within an urban area;
The public improvement will encourage private development within the apportionment district;

(c) The public improvement will increase the fair market value of the real property located within the apportionment district;

(d) The private development which is anticipated to occur within the apportionment district as a result of the public improvement is consistent with an existing comprehensive land use plan and approved growth policies of the jurisdiction within which it is located;

(e) A public improvement located within a city has been approved by the legislative authority of such city; and

(f) A public improvement located within an urban area in an unincorporated area has been approved by the legislative authority of the county within whose boundaries the area lies.

(2) Apportionment of regular property tax revenues to finance the public improvements is subject to the following limitations:

(a) No apportionment of regular property tax revenues may take place within a previously established apportionment district where regular property taxes are still apportioned to finance public improvements without the concurrence of the sponsor which established the district;

(b) No apportionment district may be established which includes any geographic area included within a previously established apportionment district which has outstanding bonds payable in whole or in part from tax allocation revenues;

(c) The total amount of outstanding bonds payable in whole or in part from tax allocation revenues arising from property located within a city shall not exceed two percent of the value of taxable property within the city, and the total amount of outstanding bonds payable in whole or in part from tax allocation revenues arising from property located within the unincorporated areas of a county shall not exceed two percent of the value of taxable property within the entire unincorporated area of the county; and

(d) No taxes other than regular property taxes may be apportioned under this chapter.

(3) Public improvements may be undertaken and coordinated with other programs or efforts undertaken by the sponsor or others and maybe funded in whole or in part from sources other than those provided by this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. PROCEDURE FOR ADOPTION OF PUBLIC IMPROVEMENT. Public improvements funded by tax allocation revenues may only be located within an urban area. In order to secure an allocation of regular property taxes to finance a public improvement, a sponsor shall:

(1) Propose by ordinance a plan for the public improvement which includes a description of the contemplated public improvement, the estimated cost thereof, the boundaries of the apportionment district, the estimated period during which tax revenue apportionment is contemplated, and the ways in which the sponsor plans to use tax allocation revenues to finance the public improvement, and which sets at least three public hearings thereon before the legislative authority of the sponsor or a committee thereof: PROVIDED, That public hearings for the public improvement that is undertaken in combination or coordination by two or more sponsors may be held jointly; and public hearings, held before the legislative authority or a committee of a majority thereof may be combined with public hearings held for other purposes;

(2) At least fifteen days in advance of the hearing:

(a) Deliver notice of the hearing to all taxing districts, the county treasurer, and the county assessor, which notice includes a map or drawing showing the location of the contemplated public improvement and the boundaries of the proposed apportionment district, a brief description of the public improvement, the estimated cost thereof, the anticipated increase in property values within the apportionment district, the location of the sponsor's principal business office where it will maintain information concerning the public improvement for public inspection, and the date and place of hearing; and

(b) Post notice in a least six public places located in the proposed apportionment district and publish notice in a legal newspaper of general circulation within the sponsor's jurisdiction briefly describing the public improvement, the proposed apportionment, the boundaries of the proposed apportionment district, the location where additional information concerning the public improvement may be inspected, and the date and place of hearing;

(3) At the time and place fixed for the hearing under subsection (1) of this section, and at such times to which the hearing may be adjourned, receive and consider all statements and materials as may be submitted, and objections and letters filed before or within ten days thereafter;

(4) Within one hundred twenty days after completion of the public hearings, pass an ordinance establishing the apportionment district and authorizing the proposed public improvement, including any modifications which in the sponsor's opinion the hearings indicated should be made, which includes the boundaries of the apportionment district, a description of the public improvement, the estimated cost thereof, the portion of the estimated cost thereof to be reimbursed from tax allocation revenues, the estimated time during which regular property taxes are to be apportioned, the date upon which apportionment of the regular property taxes will commence, and a finding that the public improvement meets the conditions of section 4 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. NOTICE OF PUBLIC IMPROVEMENT. Within fifteen days after enactment of the public improvement ordinance, the sponsor shall publish notice in a legal newspaper circulated within the designated apportionment district summarizing the final public improvement, including a brief description of the public improvement, the boundaries of the apportionment district, and the location where the public improvement ordinance and any other information concerning the public improvement may be inspected.

Within fifteen days after enactment of the public improvement ordinance, the sponsor shall deliver a certified copy thereof to each taxing district, the county treasurer, and the county assessor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. DISAGREEMENTS BETWEEN TAXING DISTRICTS. (1) Any taxing district that objects to the apportionment district, the duration of the apportionment, the manner of apportionment, or the propriety of cost items established by the public improvement ordinance of the sponsor may, within thirty days after receipt of the ordinance, petition for review thereof by the state board of tax appeals. The state board of tax appeals shall meet within a reasonable time, hear all the evidence presented by the parties on matters in dispute, and determine the issues upon the evidence as may be presented to it at the hearing. The board may approve or deny the public improvement ordinance as enacted or may grant approval conditioned upon modification of the ordinance by the sponsor. The decision by the state board of tax appeals shall be final and conclusive but shall not preclude modification or discontinuation of the public improvement.

(2) If the sponsor modifies the public improvement ordinance as directed by the board, the public improvement ordinance shall be effective without further hearings or findings and shall not be subject to any further appeal. If the sponsor modifies the public improvement ordinance in a manner other than as directed by the board, the public improvement ordinance shall be subject to the procedures established pursuant to sections 5 and 6 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. APPORTIONMENT OF TAXES. (1) Upon the date established in the public improvement ordinance, but not sooner than the first day of the calendar year following the passage of the ordinance, the regular property taxes levied upon the assessed value of real property within the apportionment district shall be divided as follows:

(a) That portion of the regular property taxes produced by the rate of tax levied each year by or for each of the taxing districts upon the tax allocation base value of real property, or upon the assessed value of real property within the apportionment district shall be divided as follows:

(b) That portion of the regular property taxes levied each year by or for each of the taxing districts upon the assessed value of real property within an apportionment district which is in excess of the tax allocation base value of real property shall be allocated and paid to the sponsor, or the sponsor's designated agent, until all public improvement costs to be paid from the tax allocation revenues have been paid, except that the sponsor may agree to receive less than the full amount of such portion as long as bond debt service, reserve, and other bond covenant requirements are satisfied, in which case the balance of the taxes shall be allocated to the respective taxing districts as the sponsor and the taxing districts may agree.

(2) The county assessor shall revalue the real property within the apportionment district for the purpose of determining the tax allocation base value for the apportionment district and shall certify to the sponsor the tax allocation base value as soon as practicable after the assessor receives notice of the public improvement ordinance and shall certify to the sponsor the total assessed value of real property within thirty days after the property values for each succeeding year have been established, except that the assessed value of state-assessed real property within the apportionment district shall be certified as soon as the values are provided to the assessor by the department of revenue. Nothing in this section authorizes revaluations of real property by the assessor for property taxation that are not made in accordance with the assessor's revaluation plan under chapter 84.41 RCW.

(3) The date upon which the apportionment district was established shall be considered the date upon which the public improvement ordinance was enacted by the sponsor.

(4) The apportionment of regular property taxes under this section shall cease when tax allocation revenues are no longer necessary or obligated to pay public improvement costs or to pay principal of and interest on bonds issued to finance public improvement costs and payable in whole or in part from tax allocation revenues. At the time of termination of the apportionment, any excess money and any earnings thereon held by the sponsor shall be returned to the county treasurer and distributed to the taxing districts which were subject to the allocation in proportion to their regular property tax levies due for the year in which the funds are returned.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. APPLICATION OF TAX ALLOCATION REVENUES. Tax allocation revenues may be applied as follows:

(1) To pay public improvement costs;

(2) To pay principal of and interest on, and to fund any necessary reserves for, tax allocation bonds;

(3) To pay into bond funds established to pay the principal of and interest on general obligation bonds issued pursuant to law to finance public facilities that are specified in the public improvement ordinance and constructed following the establishment of and within the apportionment district; or

(4) To pay any combination of the foregoing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. GENERAL OBLIGATION BONDS. General obligation bonds which are issued to finance public facilities that are specified in the public improvement ordinance, and for which part or all of the principal or interest is paid by tax allocation revenues, shall be subject to the following requirements:

(1) The intent to issue such bonds and the maximum amount which the sponsor contemplates issuing are specified in the public improvement ordinance; and

(2) A statement of the intent of the sponsor to issue such bonds is included in all notices required by sections 5 and 6 of this act.

In addition, the ordinance or resolution authorizing the issuance of such general obligation bonds shall be subject to potential referendum approval by the voters of the issuing entity when the bonds are part of the non-voter approved indebtedness limitation established pursuant to RCW 39.36.020. If the voters of the county or city issuing such bonds otherwise possess the general power of referendum on county or city matters, the ordinance or resolution shall be subject to that procedure. If the voters of the county or city issuing such bonds do not otherwise possess the general power of referendum on county or city matters, the referendum shall conform to the requirements and procedures for referendum petitions provided for code cities in RCW 35A.11.100.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. TAX ALLOCATION BONDS. (1) A sponsor may issue such tax allocation bonds as it may deem appropriate for the financing of public improvement costs and a reasonable bond reserve and for the refunding of any outstanding tax allocation bonds.

(2) The principal and interest of tax allocation bonds may be made payable from:

(a) Tax allocation revenues;

(b) Project revenues which may include (i) nontax income, revenues, fees, and rents from the public improvement financed with the proceeds of the bonds, or portions thereof, and (ii) contributions, grants, and nontax money available to the sponsor for payment of costs of the public improvement or the debt service of the bonds issued therefor;

(c) Any combination of the foregoing.

(3) Tax allocation bonds shall not be the general obligation of or guaranteed by all or any part of the full faith and credit of the sponsor or any other state or local government, or any tax revenues other than tax allocation revenues, and shall not be considered a debt of the sponsor or other state or local government for general indebtedness limitation purposes.

(4) The terms and conditions of tax allocation bonds may include provisions for the following matters, among others:

(a) The date of issuance, maturity date or dates, denominations, form, series, negotiability, registration, rank or priority, place of payment, interest rate or rates which may be fixed or may vary over the life of the tax allocation bonds, bond reserve, coverage, and such other terms related to repayment of the tax allocation bonds;

(b) The application of tax allocation bond proceeds; the use, sale, or disposition of property acquired; consideration or rents and fees to be charged in the sale or lease of property acquired; consideration or rents and fees to be charged in the sale or lease of property within a public improvement; the application of rents, fees, and revenues within a public improvement; the maintenance, insurance, and replacement of property within a public improvement; other encumbrances, if any, upon all or part of property within a public improvement, then existing or thereafter acquired; and the type of debts that may be incurred;

(c) The creation of special funds; the money to be so applied; and the use and disposition of the money;

(d) The securing of the tax allocation bonds by a pledge of property and property rights, by assignment of income generated by the public improvement, or by pledging such additional specifically described resources other than tax revenues as are available to the sponsor;

(e) The terms and conditions for redemption;

(f) The replacement of lost and destroyed bond instruments;

(g) Procedures for amendment of the terms and conditions of the tax allocation bonds;

(h) The powers of a trustee to enforce covenants and take other actions in event of default; the rights, liabilities, powers, and duties arising upon the breach of any covenant, condition, or obligation; and

(i) When consistent with the terms of this chapter, such other terms, conditions, and provisions which may make the tax allocation bonds more marketable and further the purposes of this chapter.

(5) Tax allocation bonds may be issued and sold in such manner as the legislative authority of the sponsor shall determine.

(6) The sponsor may also issue or incur obligations in anticipation of the receipt of tax allocation bond proceeds or other money available to pay public improvement costs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. There is added to chapter 84.55 RCW a new section to read as follows:

ADJUSTMENT TO TAX LIMITATION. Pursuant to chapter 39. . . RCW (sections 1 through 10 and 12 through 15 of this act), any increase in the assessed value of real property within an apportionment district resulting from new construction, improvements to property, or any increase in the assessed value of state-assessed property shall not be included in the increase in assessed value resulting from new construction, improvements, or any increase in the assessed value of state-assessed property for purposes of calculating any limitations upon regular property taxes under this chapter until the termination of apportionment as set forth in section 8(4) of this act, as now or hereafter amended, except to the extent a taxing district actually will receive the taxes levied upon this value. Tax allocation revenues, as defined in section 3 of this act, as now or hereafter amended, shall not be deemed to be "regular property taxes" for purposes of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. LEGAL INVESTMENTS. Tax allocation bonds authorized in this chapter shall be legal investments for any of the funds of the state and of municipal corporations, for trustees, and for other fiduciaries.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. NOTICE TO STATE. Whenever notice is required to be given to the state, notice shall be given to the director of revenue.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. CONCLUSIVE PRESUMPTION OF VALIDITY. No direct or collateral attack on any public improvement, public improvement ordinance, or apportionment district purported to be authorized or created in conformance with applicable legal requirements, including the requirements of this chapter, may be commenced more than thirty days after publication of notice as required by section 6 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. SUPPLEMENTAL NATURE OF CHAPTER. This chapter supplements and neither restricts nor limits any powers which the state or any municipal corporation might otherwise have under any laws of this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. CAPTIONS NOT PART OF LAW. As used in this act, captions constitute no part of the law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. SEVERABILITY. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. Sections 1 through 10 and 12 through 15 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 39 RCW.
Conclusion of explanatory statement on Initiative Measure 412

The maximum annual interest rate for purchases made on a revolving charge agreement, or on a credit card, would be 1% above the federal discount rate on 90-day commercial paper, or 12% (both of which would be computed on outstanding unpaid balances), or $12.00, whichever is the greater. This would be true even though the issuer of the credit card was not engaged regularly in the sale of goods or services.

If approved into law, Initiative 412 would also subject all other personal loans made by state-chartered savings banks, mutual savings banks, and savings and loan associations, as well as federally chartered savings and loan associations, to the general state usury limit of 4% above the equivalent coupon issue yield for 26-week Treasury Bills at the first bill auction of the preceding month, or 12%, whichever is higher.

Initiative 412 would not affect the federally imposed maximum interest rates on most residential mortgage loans, which apply regardless of the maker of such loan, nor would it affect the maximum rate which may be charged by federal credit unions. State-chartered credit unions would continue to be able to charge the same rates as federally chartered credit unions except on retail installment and credit card transactions.

Finally, the provisions of federal law which limit the rate which may be charged on loans by national banks would not be altered by the passage of Initiative 412—however, the applicable state law rates incorporated within that provision would be changed with respect to retail installment and credit card transactions as discussed above.

Conclusion of explanatory statement on Senate Joint Resolution 143 public improvements; such indebtedness will be subject to the limitations of existing law, including voter approval when required to exceed existing debt limitations. The amendment also requires notice and opportunity for public hearing on any proposal to utilize such general indebtedness. Further, if voter approval is not otherwise required by the Constitution, the amendment would permit the use of a referendum on any such proposal.

The legislature earlier this year passed and the Governor signed into law Chapter 42, Laws of 1982, 1st Ex. Sess., the "Community Redevelopment Financing Act of 1982", to implement the provisions of this proposed amendment, should it be approved by the voters at the forthcoming general election. Any subsequent changes in the law aimed at enlarging the nature of public improvements, or their locations, which may utilize the tax financing of such projects through the use of increased property values will require a favorable vote of three-fifths of the members of each house of the legislature and be further subject to approval of the voters by referendum.
Doug JEWETT
Republican

Doug Jewett has spent his professional career serving the needs of the people of Washington. First as King County Deputy Prosecutor, then as an attorney in private practice, and since 1977, as Seattle's elected City Attorney. Re-elected without opposition in 1981, he supervises a staff of 70, while administering a multi-million dollar budget.

He will bring the same leadership qualities to the Senate as he has demonstrated in the state's third largest public law office. He initiated a precedent-setting program for dealing with domestic violence that serves as a national model. His leadership role in taking drunk drivers off our highways was instrumental in securing tougher drunk driving laws.

Unlike Henry Jackson, Doug Jewett advocates a Constitutional Amendment requiring a balanced budget. All of us are required to live within our means - the federal government must do the same. Our businesses can only create the new jobs we need if they can obtain capital at affordable interest rates. Doug Jewett will show the self-discipline necessary to curb federal spending and promote the private sector.

Doug Jewett supports an immediate, bilateral and verifiable nuclear weapons freeze at current levels, to be negotiated by the President while START talks continue. Henry Jackson has been the leading Hawk in the United States Senate for thirty years, and advocates costly and dangerous first-strike weapon systems such as the MX missile. Doug Jewett will ask the tough questions to assure a strong, efficient defense.

Doug Jewett believes that our greatest weapon is a strong, free enterprise economy, both for the welfare of our citizens and for influencing our relations with friends and adversaries abroad. He has proven that he knows how to deal with the critical issues facing our nation.

Henry M.
JACKSON
Democrat

Few men or women in public life today have worked as hard to improve the lives of everyday Americans as Henry M. Jackson.

As a United States Senator, Jackson has demonstrated a unique ability to serve individuals, families, business, their communities and the nation as a whole.

He has helped bring new industry and jobs to Washington state, but at the same time works to protect and improve our quality of life in the Pacific Northwest by creating new recreational opportunities and by sponsoring necessary public works projects.

This year, as chairman of the Senate Democratic Housing Task Force, Jackson led a bipartisan effort to help bring about economic recovery by sparking home building. His proposal to cut interest rates for the purchase of 300,000 new single family homes won overwhelming approval in the House and Senate, but was vetoed by the President.

At the same time, Jackson led the fight to save taxpayers more than $7 billion in unnecessary defense spending - more than enough to finance his national housing program - by substituting Boeing 747's for the more costly, less efficient C-5 transport planes.

Jackson has championed the causes of senior citizens, the sick and handicapped, the poorly trained and the unemployed. He feels so strongly about education that every dollar of his outside speech income is donated to college scholarships and charity - more than $200,000 in just the last six years.

Washington's senior Senator has been honored by many state, national and international groups for accomplishments ranging from conservation to human rights. He is respected and admired for his common sense, hard work, and honesty.

But the honor Jackson prizes most is the personal respect and support he has earned from the people of his home state of Washington.
United States Senator

King Lysen
Independent Candidate

King Lysen, 40 years old, has served in the State Senate and House for twelve years as a Democrat, successfully winning five Legislative elections.

The first public official to expose WPPSS wasteful cost overruns, Lysen is calling for renegotiation or invalidation of WPPSS contracts. His leadership inspired citizen control over utilities, prohibition of super tankers on Puget Sound, campaign disclosure and the open meetings law. He co-sponsored the current initiative to remove the sales tax on food, and sponsored a Washington State Senate resolution for a bilateral and verifiable freeze of the nuclear arms race. As a result of Lysen’s legislative investigation, a Federal Grand Jury is currently investigating the scandal involving our new ferries. Lysen has consistently supported working families and environmental protection. He favors retooling our economy and revitalizing our fishing and timber industries to increase productivity, put people back to work, lower inflation and again make America competitive in the industrialized world.

Lysen calls for transferring monies from the massive nuclear arms build-up to programs in the domestic and private sectors including stabilizing the Social Security System. Internationally, Lysen maintains the U.S. should support only governments which follow human rights principles inherent in our Constitution.

King Lysen believes it is time for Henry Jackson to come home! During 42 years in Washington D.C., Jackson has voted for 42,000 nuclear warheads, the unprecedented federal deficit, wasteful pork barrel projects and the confirmation of James Watt. Jackson was absent during the ERA vote and voted “no” on its extension this year. He has allowed the devastation of our fishing resources. His campaign has received $1 million in out of state monies.

Seattle University graduate King Lysen has worked as a teacher, a fisherman and in real estate. He resides in Burien with his wife Toni and their five children.

Jesse Chiang
Independent Candidate

Jesse Chiang, a Washington state resident over thirty years, with a M.A. and Ph.D. in political science from the University of Washington, has taught for over twenty years. He held membership in the National Political Science Honorary and is a founder of the Union of Concerned Educators.

Dr. Chiang’s interests include world hunger, ecology, physical fitness, arts, and humanities. He is a long-time advocate for arms control. Extensive study of American Government and foreign affairs, his vision and compassion, will bring to the Senate leadership qualities for the nation and the world.

Peace and the economy are two inseparable and urgent issues. We are threatened with both extinction and bankruptcy by huge military spending and a policy of fighting and winning a nuclear war. The paradox of deep cuts and huge deficits lies in stupendous military spending (the 1.5 trillion projected for the next five years will further escalate the deficit). Deficit spending and high interest rates are causing inflation, unemployment, bankruptcies and widespread hardship. This is not economic recovery, but economic ruin. We need a new direction for our time.

Jesse Chiang is for strong national defense, but opposed to overkill, cost overrun, wastefulness and military inter-service rivalry. A mutual, verifiable, nuclear weapons freeze could save billions. A freeze is the first realistic step to mutual disarmament. Citizens must not be misled by anti-freeze resolutions advocating arms build-up now and freeze later, or by freeze opportunists. Freeze is the key to peace and economic recovery; it should be placed above petty party politics. Citizens, think and act independently for the love of country and life!

Jesse Chiang is for equal rights, strengthening Environmental Protection Agency, upholding social security and adequate education, farmland preservation, and solar energy development. Chiang opposes “new federalism”, social injustice, discrimination against women, minorities and elderly people.
Sid
MORRISON
Republican

Congressman Sid Morrison is seeking a second term as Fourth District Representative. A 14-year veteran of the Washington state legislature, Morrison brings experience and understanding of the varied needs of his constituents.

During his first term, Morrison has traveled an average of 11,768 miles each month to maintain a working partnership with the people he represents. Three full-time district offices help folks when government fails, and a toll-free telephone line makes it easier for them to stay in touch.

Because Morrison is speaking out in Congress for the Fourth, salmon hatcheries and weather stations scheduled for closure have remained open. Social Security benefits are maintained and veterans' rights are upheld. Water projects are proceeding and export opportunities are being improved.

With Morrison's support, Congress has cut the rate of growth in government spending in half. 1980's style double digit inflation has been brought down to under five percent for the first six months of 1982, paving the way for lower interest rates. He is working hard to get America working again, with a revitalized economy and jobs.

Sid Morrison was born, grew up and lives today in the Yakima Valley. He shares the family farm with his wife Marcella, their four children and three grandchildren. He is a former chairman of the Washington State Apple Commission and a Board Member of United Way. He's been active in the Central Washington State Fair and the Yakima Valley College Foundation. Morrison has served his church as a trustee, a church school leader and a scoutmaster. He's been involved because he cares about people. And, because he cares, he wants to continue to work on the behalf of the folks of Central Washington in Congress.

Charles D.
KILBURY
Democrat

Married, three grown children, one grandson; insurance broker, owner of business and railroad switchman; former sea captain.

Previously served four terms in the Washington State House of Representatives, three terms as chairman of the House Agriculture Committee.

Advocates much lower interest rates, not the present 13 1/2%; a target price or support program for agriculture to assure the farmer of getting better than cost out of his crops.

We must resist attempts to tax barge traffic on our waterways. These waterways are vital to our economy, and the proposed user fee will destroy our water transportation.

We must improve programs like the bipartisan Jackson-Lugar bill which would have provided $3 billion in interest subsidies to stimulate construction of 300,000 new single family homes. This bill would have created work for 500,000 people, not only in construction, but also in small business. This and other programs must be devised to overcome the massive unemployment—the worst since the Great Depression of the thirties—which is causing so much misery and human suffering.

The retrofitting of old battleships into rocket launchers, and the purchase of C-5A's for the military are examples of massive waste in defense spending we can do without.

Lastly, we must reduce the fantastic budget deficits piled up by the Reagan administration until we can have a balanced budget.
The federal deficit is one of the major causes of inflation. By increasing the demand for loans, the law of supply and demand says the cost of the loan, the interest, must go up. Businesses have to raise prices to pay higher interest rates. The national debt is over one trillion dollars. If the government hadn't wasted our trillion dollars (five thousand dollars for each man, woman and child in the United States) there would be a lot more money available for investment into the economy.

Now they're talking about giving our national lands to the banks to help pay our national debt. At the artificially low value they put on our land, it would pay about one year's interest. Now you know why bankers spend so much money trying to control our government.

The draft violates the thirteenth amendment prohibition against involuntary servitude and must be permanently halted. Sure young men should defend freedom and I'm sure they will when it's needed.

Anyway, it should be the people telling the government when to fight, not vice versa.

If there were no Constitution, the Republicans and Democrats would have taken all your right away by now. As it is, you've lost many of your rights anyway. You need a congressman who respects and understands your Constitution, who is concerned about your freedom and privacy, who would protect your rights even if there were no Constitution. Let me be that congressman.

Michael Leroy Burns
Free Peoples Party

If you don’t stop voting for Democrats and Republicans, you’ll never get a change in government. They both tell you what you want to hear then they give you increased taxes, increased debt, more interference in business, less privacy, less freedom, less free enterprise, a stifled economy, . . . the list is endless.
United States Representative
Fifth Congressional District

John
SONNELAND
Republican

John Sonneland's commitment to the people of Eastern Washington runs deep. His wife and family are here. His home is here. He has a business, meets its payroll and pays taxes here.

John shares the values of our people—freedom, faith, family, health and work. He, too, shares our concerns. Sonneland knows many hurt from lack of jobs, from fear of losing their farms and businesses. He is deeply sensitive to the fear of poverty in retirement years; older Americans on Social Security must not be threatened with cutbacks.

John Sonneland profoundly believes the recent joint warning by five former Secretaries of the Treasury—both Democrats and Republicans—that high interest rates and lack of jobs will continue until Congressmen cut spending and balance the budget.

John has spent his life caring for people—physician, small businessman, citizen. He and his wife of 33 years, Holly, have raised 5 children, now welcome 3 grandchildren. Sonneland employs 30 people in the family telephone answering service, belongs to the National Federation of Independent Business and the Chamber’s Ag Bureau.

He has been a leader in We the People, National Taxpayers Union, Young Life, Salvation Army, American Cancer Society, is a church elder, and still finds time to serve as high school team doctor.

"I look back 20 years and see what has happened to our country. I know I can't leave that kind of world to my children and grandchildren, nor to yours. They deserve a better world. I will work hard in Congress for that better world."

John Sonneland's commitment to the people of Eastern Washington is really special—the beauty of the rolling countryside, its warm, caring people. Our district deserves a special kind of Congressman—a representative Representative—who knows the hurts of its people and will go to the mat fighting to help them."

Thomas S.
FOLEY
Democrat

A lifelong resident of Spokane, Congressman Tom Foley is considered one of the most effective leaders in Congress. He serves as Majority Whip, Vice Chairman of the Agriculture Committee, and Chairman of the Sub-committee on Wheat, Soybeans and Feed Grains.

Foley is from a pioneer Eastern Washington family—his grandfather homesteaded in the Big Bend wheat country, his mother was born in Davenport, and his father served for many years as a judge of the Spokane County Superior Court.

He was first elected to Congress in 1964 after serving as a Deputy Prosecutor of Spokane County, an Assistant Attorney General of the state of Washington, and Special Counsel to Senator Henry M. Jackson.

Foley believes that one of the top priorities of the nation should be to get the economy moving again and to get more people back to work. He has been a leading advocate of reforms in the budget process.

The Congressman wants to make sure that Social Security and health care benefits for senior citizens are protected.

Foley has been the principal spokesman for American agriculture in the House and has been the leader in efforts to improve farm income by expanding U.W. farm exports through long-term trade agreements.

Many national political observers and journalists have commented that Foley enjoys widespread respect among his colleagues, regardless of party, and that he is destined to become a future Speaker of the House.

Despite the fact that Eastern Washington is more than 2,500 miles from the U.S. Capitol, Foley comes home to the Fifth District constantly to meet with and listen to the people he represents.

The Congressman is a graduate of the University of Washington and its School of Law. He married the former Heather Strachan in 1968.
Owner of a small business, Hairloom, Inc., for 12 years. Married, 3 children. Has been a long time civic worker and leader in the Spokane Area by helping to develop the Spokane Youth Complex, Spokane Christian Coalition, Chamber of Commerce, and Salem Lutheran Church. Ben is president of Washington State Cosmetologists Association and treasurer of the National Hairdressers Association.

Ben will not vote for any increase in taxes and is extremely opposed to a state income tax. Our budget crisis can be solved by stopping state spending waste. We must operate within the confines of our actual revenues.

Lois J. Stratton, 32-year resident of the Third district, seeking second term to the House, has established a record of working hard for the people in the district, and is a special champion of legislation affecting our youth and senior citizens.

Serves on the Local Government, Human Services and Natural Resources Committees, is co-chair of the Select Committee on Illegal Drug Trafficking, a member of the DSHS Drug Task Force, LEOFF Select Committee Study, Select Committee on Social Services, and serves on the Municipal Research Committee.

She consistently demands accountability in department spending, and maintains accountability as a legislator to her constituents, and opposes any more taxes.

Representative Margaret Leonard, now completing her first term, is a 12-year resident of the 3rd District. Margaret has established a record of listening to the people of her district and then backing their wishes with action. She keeps campaign promises. Margaret stopped legislation providing for inspection of our homes (SB 4494).

Supports, to the extent possible, solving the state's financial problems with creative alternatives and chore services for handicapped and elderly, needy folks.

Opposes a state income tax, gun control, and welfare fraud. Margaret would like to continue working for these vitally important issues.

Please vote for Margaret, November 2nd.

You can provide Spokane with active, responsible, and knowledgeable representation with Dennis Dellwo. Dennis is concerned for our future, looking for a sensible way to manage the state without hurting people. He will protect the jobs we have and fight for more. He will work to reduce tax burdens on the elderly and those least able to pay.

Dennis is a dynamic leader, has a background of varied work experience, and understands the legislative process. He knows our community. He will listen to you.

If you want a representative who can do the job and do it well, elect Dennis Dellwo.
Ren Taylor is known statewide as an experienced, dedicated and effective legislator who provides significant leadership for Eastern Washington and the 4th district in particular. Ren is one of only two Eastern Washington legislators serving as a committee chairman.

Top priorities: a thorough review of property tax laws and continued efforts to cut back the size of state government. He will continue to support the essential services that impact the health, safety and education of our citizens.

Ren is a life-long resident of Washington and a veteran of World War II.

Roger Kinnune's prime concern is the unfair tax burden caused by a hodge-podge of taxes levied haphazardly over the past decade. He says the problem was caused by poor planning, disorganization and partisan bickering in both parties.

Kinnune promises a business-like approach to handling legislation. He also promises solid representation for Spokane Valley's 4th district.

Kinnune, a 16-year, 4th district resident, is active in church and civic affairs, and is an authority in all areas of state government. Roger and his wife Dianne have three children who attend or have attended public schools in the 4th district.

Mike Padden in his first term as 4th district Representative opposed tax increase measures and promoted spending reform in an effort to make state government more accountable. Mike believes the family is the basic social, economic, moral and educational unit of society.

Mike serves on the Human Services, Ethics, Law and Justice (vice chairman) and Agriculture Committees and is a member of the Sentencing Guidelines Commission.

A graduate of Gonzaga University and Gonzaga School of Law, Mike has been a practicing attorney since 1974. Mike is married to the former Laura Derr and they have three sons.

Now, more than ever, Washington State needs legislators who are politically courageous; leaders whose main concern is—not how to be re-elected, but rather how to best serve this state and guide it wisely through these difficult times.

Sally Jackson is that kind of leader. An out-spoken, straightforward woman; she is well-known for her boundless energy, strength and leadership abilities. Yet, Sally is a person with whom people feel completely comfortable.

Born and raised in this district, Sally is a graduate of Eastern Washington University, former teacher, married, mother of six, small businesswoman, and tireless community volunteer.
Jean Silver
Republican

A Certified Public Accountant, Jean Silver has the educational and professional experience to deal with complex financial problems facing our state. A 33-year resident of the 5th district, Jean believes a Representative must be responsive to the voters and secure the best return on the taxpayer's dollar.

She is active in community service and professional societies serving on state and local boards.

Jean will work for sound legislation to control the increase in crime, eliminate duplication in state agencies, and create job opportunities through free enterprise by promoting a healthy business climate within the state.

Keith Campbell
Democrat

Keith Campbell is a former Justice Court Judge, School Board President and 4-term State Representative.

Campbell has also served on various unpaid part-time public service committees such as the Washington State Judicial Council and the Inter-Agency for Outdoor Recreation.

Keith Campbell is an experienced “public servant” who will work for an equitable tax system which will shift the heaviest tax burden away from home owners, small businesses and the people least able to pay taxes.

Campbell will work for laws that protect the public not the criminals.

Richard H. “Dick” Barrett
Republican

Richard H. “Dick” Barrett established himself, to quote a local newspaper, as “one of the more moderate of the conservative, no-tax” members of the House of Representatives. He favors cutting the size and growth of state government as the first priority toward a balanced budget. He would add taxes only as a “last resort” method of maintaining the most essential state services. Barrett opposes a state income tax. He is chairman, House Subcommittee on International Trade, and a member of the Education Appropriations, Local Government and Labor and Economic Development Committees. He represents North Spokane.

Rich Hobbs
Democrat

Rich Hobbs, age 55, is retired after 30 years' service with the Spokane Fire Department where he attained the rank of Battalion Chief in charge of training. Rich was instrumental in organizing the Spokane Crisis Clinic, the citizen C.P.R. program and the Spokane Fire Department's paramedical services. He presently serves on the Spokane Emergency Medical Services Advisory Board.

State Government must fulfill its obligation to educate our young and care for those truly needy who cannot provide for themselves. To do this we must ensure adequate revenue and use our tax dollars responsibly. Rich proposes line-item, zero-based budget to control expenditures, and a reworking of our tax system to gain a stable tax base that is fair and equally applied.
Senator Sam C. Guess believes in direct, personal contact with the people of the Sixth legislative district. He has personally responded to thousands of involved citizens during his time in office. Every letter or call receives his response and follow-up.

Senator Guess effectively blends his conservative philosophy with mature judgment achieved over years of service to his constituents. He is never afraid to make reasonable decisions after thorough analysis of all points of view. He recognizes that experience is necessary to create a fair and impartial approach to tough legislative issues.

Senator Guess knows that to provide the highest quality in government service, he must understand the problems facing our people. He has consistently supported quality education and other necessary state programs to the greatest degree possible with available dollars. He brings sensible and realistic thinking to today's and tomorrow's problems.

Senator Guess was chosen by his Senate colleagues to serve as President Pro-Tem in 1981.

The people of the Sixth district will be most effectively served when Senator Sam C. Guess is re-elected.

Max Snyder wants to end the Legislature's "business as usual" attitude and seek honest, innovative, practical answers for our future. Max Snyder's professional and personal life proves him to be a man who can bring people of varied philosophies together to solve shared problems. Retired in 1981 as district president of Spokane Community College District 17, the largest in Washington state, his long and distinguished career record demonstrates a problem solving approach that combines fiscal conservatism with a practical concern for people. Married to Nancy Fitzgerald since 1944, he is father of seven children and has been active in community affairs throughout his career. He believes the real issues of 1982 are: a stagnant economy, high unemployment, quality education for our children, and solving the state revenue problem. Max Snyder believes the legislature must end the political game-playing practiced by narrow, special interest politicians, and seek reasonable, honest solutions to the problems faced by our state and our people.
Jim West, a twenty-five year Spokane resident, is concerned about the problems facing us all. Jim West knows, as a past legislative liaison for Spokane's City Council, that good, dependable representation is important in getting the needs of the district the consideration they require and deserve. As a former police officer, Spokane County Deputy Sheriff, city councilman, Jim West knows the value of hard work. Jim West wants to hold the line on taxes and feels that priorities are important. Jim West was recently recognized as Spokane's "Outstanding Young Citizen" and takes an active involvement in community activities.

Mary Springer is committed to keeping the quality of life in the 6th district. She knows that senior citizens on fixed incomes could be taxed out of their homes if they don't have a strong voice in Olympia. She opposes the early release of dangerous criminals. Mary Springer says the Legislature has mismanaged state government, costing the taxpayers millions. She will work to restore the state's credit rating and end the $5000 per hour interest payments. Mary Springer is a mother of three daughters, a community college employee and a responsible citizen. We need Mary Springer representing us.

Dick Bond is completing his fourth term as 6th district Representative. He serves on the Rules, Energy, Revenue, and Financial Institutions & Insurance Committees.

Dick Bond believes that our economy is hurt, not helped, by increasing taxes to feed government growth and he faithfully kept his promise to fight higher taxes. For his efforts he has three times been named Legislator of the Year.

Dick Bond believes in individual enterprise and freedom of economic choice and will continue to oppose government overregulation. Dick Bond is an engineer and a small business owner. He and his wife Pat have three sons.

After retiring from federal service, Bill Norton attended Utah State University and recently graduated from Gonzaga University Law School. Bill is married with two sons and is currently employed by the Spokane Public Defender's Office.

Bill's one priority is people. The ability of the state of Washington to fulfill its role and meet the needs of all the people in the state depends on legislators who have the common sense and determination to do the job that needs to be done.
Scott has served six years as a state Representative in the seventh district; currently the only member serving on four committees, including the powerful Rules.

As a fiscal and social conservative and supporter of the free enterprise system he continues his strong commitment to work for: a) economy in government; b) eliminating inequities in funding Washington schools; c) enhancing local control; d) resisting additional gun control; f) strengthening our traditional family life.

Advocated state elected officials' salary reductions and was among the first to turn back his own previously authorized salary increase.

Semi-retired, Scott and his wife Dolly live on their cattle and grain farm near Edwall. Has served the seventh district for thirty-four years in many capacities, including work on farm commodity organizations, conservation districts, and civic groups. Has been a long time member of the grange and farm bureau.

Because of past leadership roles on agriculture and water issues, Scott sees a need for his experience on the Senate Agriculture Committee.

If elected to the Senate, he will continue his past efforts to stay in close contact with his constituents and keep them as fully informed as possible.

Wilbur Hallauer has had a multiple business career and is a factory manager by profession. His public service consists of 8 years in the House of Representatives and 12 years in the State Senate. From 1977-1980 he was director of the Department of Ecology. He voluntarily retired from the legislature in 1969 to become production manager of the family-owned food dehydration business.

He is recognized statewide as a budget and financial expert, having served as chairman of the House Revenue Committee, Senate Appropriations Committee, and four years as chairman of the Senate Ways & Means Committee. He also chaired special committees on water resources and community colleges which resolved long-standing problems in those areas. As director of Ecology, he established a policy of mediation between the conflicting interests of environmentalism and development.

Web's record in both government and business is one of absolute personal integrity. He gained stature in the legislative system by seeking out the toughest and least desirable assignments and then bringing about consensus solutions from his colleagues.

Web has had varied experience as a factory manager, orchardist, mineral explorer, tree farmer, and specialty sawmill owner. He has lived at Oroville since his graduation from the University of Washington. He is married and has two daughters.
Steve Fuhrman knows Washington must return to basics. We must rebuild confidence in the concept that our greatness as a nation comes from our trust in God, devotion to family, and support of a strong country and its Constitution. We must restore jobs and a strong economy through people working for a living, not through government programs.

Steve graduated from Washington State University and was a veteran of the Vietnam War with rank of Captain. Steve and Susan are the parents of four children. They have built thriving businesses of grain elevators and farm supply stores in the Colville Valley.

Unemployment is a cruel reality that affects nearly a quarter of the 7th district’s residents. Betty Buckley Clarke is dedicated to putting people back to work. She wants government to search for new markets and new industries to develop without exploiting the 7th district.

Betty wants to make our district an even better place to live. A graduate of Eastern State University, she has a long history of involvement. She has held state and regional offices within the Democratic party and has always been an advocate for the 7th district. Betty cares and she deserves your vote.

Pete McCombs understands the needs of his state and its people. As your representative, Pete will work toward the preservation of agricultural lands, stimulation of our lumber industry, and encouraging the development of all available hydro and solar energy.

Pete McCombs supports stronger enforcement of drug laws and improving the judicial system so criminals are punished, not the victim. He believes in having a balanced budget, and as a supporter of the Constitution, he believes in the right of citizens to keep and bear arms.

Recently retired, Pete McCombs will dedicate full time to his legislative duties.
Darwin Nealey has the common sense we need in Olympia. As a graduate of W.S.U. and a farmer for over 40 years, he is acquainted with the unique needs of our district. Darwin's 20 years of hard work and capable leadership in the Republican party have earned him the respect of many legislators and people throughout the district. Darwin believes that state government must learn to live within its means, that small business must be encouraged to develop by tearing down existing bureaucratic roadblocks and red tape, and that the amount of bureaucratic intervention in our lives must be reduced.

Jim Timmons will bring competent and straightforward representation to the 9th district. As a farmer and member of the Washington Association of Wheat Growers, Jim is concerned with the growing number of farm bankruptcies in the region and has pledged to be an advocate for the farm community. Jim Timmons is also dedicated to quality education and keeping WSU a valuable resource to the agricultural community. Jim Timmons wants to work with you to bring back effective and efficient government. He is committed to provide open government that listens to the people. Together we can bring Washington back.

Eugene Prince is completing his first term as 9th district, position 2, Representative. He served thirteen years previously on the House of Representatives staff as Sergeant of Arms, Assistant Chief Clerk and etc. Representative Prince is vice-chairman of House Higher Education, a member of the Agriculture Committee, Transportation Committee and Joint Administrative Rules Review Committee.

He will continue to work for administrative efficiency in government and maintenance of essential services.

A graduate of Washington State University, is engaged in wheat farming at Thornton. He and his wife Patsy have four children and five grandchildren.

John Urban believes the task of the 1983 Legislature will be to put Washington on a sound financial basis. Committed to open government, John has a proven record of standing up for issues he believes in and supporting the unpopular causes when a basic right is involved. John Urban, 42, grew up on a farm in Clark County and is committed to preserving the family farm. John has a Masters Degree from Eastern Washington University and has been a high school history teacher for 17 years. He does agricultural work in the summer. John is married and has one son.

<td>Through his business, community work, and public service, Clyde Ballard has become one of the most familiar names in the 12th legislative district. Family and church are the cornerstones for Clyde in everything he does. This is reflected in his personal life, in his business and in his public service. Clyde will bring to this office a broad and deep knowledge of the entire 12th legislative district and an understanding of the different problems which affect its citizens. Clyde and his wife Ruth have three grown sons.</td>

<td>Howard Pryor is an experienced administrator, having been involved in the development of revenue projecting and budgeting of funds generated and needed by both city and county governments. He served ten years as Mayor of Electric City and four years as Okanogan County Commissioner. He has been an independent businessman in the 12th district for thirty-four years as an oil distributor, grain storage and feed store owner, and twenty years as an auto dealer and orchardist in Brewster. Some of his concerns are the maintenance of adequate funding for education, senior citizens, law enforcement, agricultural research and tourism. The Democrats and Republicans have no respect for our rights and our money. Every campaign we get promises of a balanced budget and less taxes or no increase in taxes. Most legislators have enough personal wealth that they don’t understand the burdens they’re putting on the average taxpayer. They also don’t respect your constitutional rights. The closest they get is to wonder if a certain law will make it past the courts (which doesn’t respect the Constitution much either). If I’m elected, I will never raise taxes and I will respect your Constitution.</td>

Representative Sid Flanagan, farmer and cattleman, has had 21 years experience in the Legislature. Flanagan and wife Vyvien have three children. Flanagan is a graduate of the University of Washington, in the school of Business Administration. Flanagan is presently a member of Rules, Labor and Economic Development Committees, Special Advisor to leadership, and vice-chair of the Revenue and Taxation Committee. He is chairman of the Select Committee on Oil and Gas Legislation. Speaker Polk appointed Flanagan to the Council of State Governments on International Trade Committee.

Sid Flanagan has been chairman, vice-chairman or ranking minority member of the Revenue and Tax Committee for the past 18 years. He has gained the respect of members on both sides of the aisle for his knowledge of revenue and tax issues. During this time, he has authored landmark legislation in the area of property taxes, including the 6% limit law, which has saved property taxpayers $944,000,000 since it became effective in 1974.

"I look forward to four years in the Senate to continue my work on international trade and also revenue issues."

During his ten years in the Legislature, Tub Hansen has been a leader in defending the interests of agriculture, small business and solving transportation problems. He has maintained excellent relationships with west coast legislators — Democrat or Republican — so they, in turn, listen and respond to his lead on protecting the interests of his district. Tub is in close contact with his constituents, seeking their opinions and helping with their problems.

A retired rancher, Tub is a lifelong resident of Moses Lake. Tub Hansen has ably represented Kittitas, most of Grant and part of Yakima counties for six years in the House and four in the Senate. He is now a candidate for re-election in the new 13th district expanded to include part of Adams County and the Cowiche-Tieton areas.

His record proves he supports limits on government spending and sensible plans for Washington’s future through jobs, and careful use of energy and water resources. He is ideally equipped to continue representing all interests of the district. He understands the concerns of the small farmer and small businessperson.

Tub Hansen works full time trying to be of real help to the people of Central Washington. Tub believes people from all walks of life deserve fair representation in government.
Glyn Chandler is a hard-working businessman that knows how to get things done. Glyn Chandler has lived in district 13 for 25 years, and owned and operated a successful farm equipment dealership along with the family farm. Chandler has the warmth to understand people's needs and the common sense and know-how to get tough jobs done. Chandler firmly believes the role of government is doing only for the people the things they cannot do for themselves.

Jim has professional training and experience in recreational developments, crop planning, budgets, cash flow and business planning. He listens and seeks input. He works as a problem solver and will use that expertise to eliminate unnecessary spending and unfair tax burdens.

Jim's concerns: employment, import and export balancing, quality education, prepared young people, sound fiscal management, developing reportability and accountability methods, aiding seniors and disabled unable to fend for themselves. Vote for Jim Curdy election day. Thank you.

Representative Curt Smith has been in the farming business most of his life. Born on a farm in Nebraska, he was educated at the University of Nebraska. Curt and his wife Lucille settled on a farm near Quincy 27 years ago.

As Chairman of the House Agriculture Committee, Curt provides important leadership for state agriculture. He believes we can set priorities to control state spending and still provide the necessary required local and state services.

As our Representative, Curt has put this experience into practice. As our legislator, Curt has clearly shown his willingness to represent the concerns of our district.

Because of my opponent and his party, Washington's fine education system is being dismantled. In two years Washington has slipped to 47th in funding for higher education. The cuts in K-12 education are also drastic; kindergarten may be eliminated next. Yet, study after study shows that a good educational system attracts business.

Republicans have failed to deal with the economy. They promised no new taxes, no service cuts and balanced budgets. They delivered the sales tax on food, cuts in elderly chore services and the largest deficits in history. We must reverse this destructive trend.
Representative Struthers is seeking a fourth term in House of Representatives; currently Majority Whip; vice-chairman, House Ways and Means Committee; executive chairman, Select Committee on Corrections; member of Rules Committee and Institutions.

A retired businessman with dryland farming interests, Representative Struthers devotes full time to 16th district citizens. A spending reform advocate and strong vote for law and order. A lifelong resident of Walla Walla. He and wife Bonnie have six grown children. A Whitman College alumnus; World War II veteran; past president, Walla Walla School District 114 Board of Directors; and past president, Walla Walla Area Chamber of Commerce.

Harry Shenefield, a state employee, comes to the challenge of state service with corrections and law enforcement experience. As a former Police Chief, planning commission member and office manager, he is well qualified.

He sees the condition of Washington with regard to finances, employment, education, corrections, and social services and believes his understanding, common sense and know-how will be needed to correct these problems.

Education that works, help for the needy and aged, and creation of jobs are necessary for the betterment of the state and its people.

Shenefield considers his integrity and honesty to be of prime importance.

Richard (Doc) HASTINGS
Republican

Representative Richard "Doc" Hastings has been your representative in Olympia for two terms and has distinguished himself as an outstanding member of the House of Representatives. His fellow Republicans have placed him on key committees of Rules, Agriculture and Revenue. He was elected by his caucus to the post of Assistant Majority Whip.

Representative Hastings has lead the fight against the state income tax. "Doc" believes in having government operate effectively and has introduced legislation to correct duplication, civil service abuse and mismanagement.

"Doc" and his wife Claire have three children and live in Pasco.

Sandy DODD
Democrat

Sandy Dodd will bring to this office personal integrity, common sense, and genuine concern for people's needs. Sandy Dodd knows the necessity for sound fiscal management, the ability to prioritize, to eliminate unfair tax burdens, a strong economic base to encourage industries to locate and create employment diversification, expanded agriculture export markets, return of jobs that have been exported, and stresses standards for public and private schools that must be maintained for quality education.

Sandy Dodd's background as a small business owner, construction worker, and her involvement in youth activities has kept her in touch with the people and their problems.
THE OFFICE OF PRECINCT COMMITTEEEMAN

In addition to the various state and county offices which will appear upon the general election ballot, most voters will have the opportunity to vote for the office of “precinct committeeman.” At the 1977 session of the state legislature, the laws governing the official candidates’ pamphlet were amended to provide for the inclusion of this description of the office of precinct committeeman and the duties and responsibilities of persons elected to that office.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE

State law (RCW 29.42.040) provides that any person who is a registered voter and a member of a major political party may become a candidate for the office of precinct committeeman by filing a declaration of candidacy and paying a one dollar filing fee to the county auditor. Since voters do not register by political party in Washington, a candidate declares himself or herself to be a Democrat or a Republican at the time he or she files for the office. The filing period for the office of precinct committeeman begins at the same time as the filing period for other partisan offices (the last Monday in July in even-numbered years), and lasts for three weeks, ending on the third Friday following that date.

ELECTION OF PRECINCT COMMITTEEEMEN

Candidates for precinct committeeman do not appear on the primary ballot but rather are placed directly on the general election ballot, and the candidate receiving the most votes in his or her precinct for each political party is declared elected. State law (RCW 29.42.050) does provide, however, that to be declared elected, a candidate must receive at least ten percent (10%) of the number of votes cast for the candidate of his or her party receiving the greatest number of votes in that precinct.

TERM OF OFFICE AND VACANCIES

The term of office for anyone elected to the office of precinct committeeman is two years, and commences upon the official canvass of election returns by the county canvassing board. Should a vacancy occur in the office (caused by death, disqualification, resignation, or failure to elect), the usual process is for the chairman of the party central committee to fill the vacancy by appointment. Appointments to fill vacancies cannot be made between the state general election and the organization meeting of the county central committee, which must be held prior to the second Saturday in January following the election of precinct committeemen.

DUTIES OF PRECINCT COMMITTEEEMEN AS MEMBERS OF THE COUNTY AND STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEES

1. Each precinct committeeman is a member of the county central committee. The county central committee has the authority to fill vacancies on the party ticket for partisan county offices and for legislative offices in districts entirely within that county when no candidate files for such a position or when a candidate or nominee dies or is disqualified leaving no candidate of that party for such an office; they may also nominate persons for appointment to these offices if an incumbent of that party resigns.

2. The state central committee has the authority under state law (RCW 29.42.020) to:
   - Call caucuses and conventions;
   - Provide for the election of delegates to national nominating conventions;
   - Fill vacancies on the party ticket for any federal, state or legislative office which encompasses more than one county;
   - Nominate persons to fill vacancies in state or legislative offices caused by resignation or death of an incumbent of that party;
   - Provide for the nomination of presidential electors;
   - Perform other functions inherent in such an organization.

NON-STATUTORY DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF PRECINCT COMMITTEEEMEN

Specific duties and responsibilities of a precinct committeeman are usually determined by either the county or state central committees. The following duties are commonly assigned to precinct committeemen by their party organization:

- Keep informed on current issues and candidates, study the party platform;
- Attend meetings of county committees and actively participate in fund-raising activities;
- Obtain lists of registered voters from the County Auditor’s office;
- Canvass the precinct and become acquainted with the voters residing therein;
- Establish a record of eligible voters and party members within the precinct;
- Encourage voter registration within the precinct;
- Distribute party election materials during election campaigns;
- Recommend party members to work as precinct election officers;
- Encourage voters to get out and vote on election day;
- Encourage the use of absentee ballots, when the need arises;
- Hold precinct caucuses at certain selected times for the purpose of adopting resolutions and selecting delegates to the county conventions.

Individuals who are interested in serving as precinct committeemen should contact the chairman of the county central committee of their party or the state committee office of that party. Their addresses are as follows:

Republican State Committee
1509 Queen Anne Avenue North
Seattle, WA 98109

State Democratic Committee

How to Obtain an Absentee Ballot:
Any registered voter who cannot vote in person may apply to the county auditor or department of elections for an absentee ballot. Any signed request with the necessary information will be honored. For your convenience, an application form is reproduced below. The addresses of the auditors or departments of elections are also listed below. In order to be certain that an absentee ballot request is authentic, the election laws require that the signature on the application be verified by comparison with the signature on the voter’s permanent registration record. For this reason if a husband and wife both wish to vote by absentee ballot, both must sign the application form or separate, signed requests should be submitted. In order to be counted, an absentee ballot must be voted and postmarked no later than the day of the election. If you intend to vote by an absentee ballot, make your request as soon as possible to allow sufficient time for an exchange of correspondence with the county auditor or department of elections. Absentee ballot requests may be presented in person at the office of the county auditor or department of elections up until the day of the election. No absentee ballots may be issued on the day of the election.
