

Washington State Law Library
Temple of Justice
Rob Mead, State Law Librarian
(360)357-2136 library.requests@courts.wa.gov

Mission:

The Washington State Law Library's mission is to promote reliable access to legal information and provide expert legal reference assistance.

Projects:

- Rebalancing of library collection to a primarily digital collection with print retention of Washington and federal law and key titles for cite checking and preservation.
- Creation of library training program with legal research CLEs and other trainings offered quarterly.
- Renewed service for Court of Appeals divisions.
- Increased collaboration with County Law Libraries.
- Outreach to public defenders, county/city attorneys, and legal aid organizations.
- Embedded librarians on Gender & Justice Commission, Minority & Justice Commission, and Public Trust & Confidence Committee.
- Civic Learning Initiative
- Outreach to Public Librarians

