

How To Pick Out
The Right Cat At The Shelter
Take Care Of It.

By Via Sarai

1) Some cats are in big cages with other cats, and some are in cages by themselves. One cat might stare at you, and it might be a little shy.

2) Ask a volunteer to open up a cage door,
put out your hand slowly, and let the cat come to you.

3) Make sure you try older cats, not just kittens.
You will know when you find the right one.

(4)

if you find the right cat, now it's time to find the right carrier, lay a blanket, and slowly put the cat in the carrier.

(5) Once you have the carrier and the cat is in the carrier

(6) Maybe the cat will come back and sleep

5) Once your cat is at your home, leave open the carrier and sit by the carrier.

6) Maybe the cat will come back and sleep

7) Maybe your cat will get hungry after the big road trip you did.

8) Maybe the cat will come back and sleep

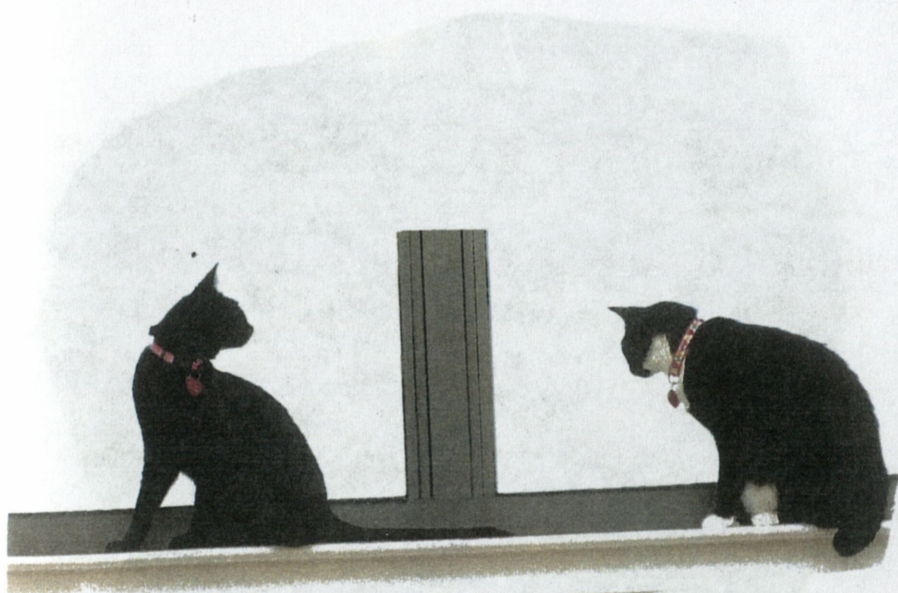

8) Make sure your cat has lots of toys to play with.

know each other and don't fight. They are not tussling too much.

9) Give your cat lots of love and be patient if they are not ready for it yet.

10) Maybe there is another cat at home.

Make sure they have lots of time to get to know each other and that they are not tussling too much.

11) Some people let their cats go free during the day.

12) If you do let your cat go outside, make sure your cat wears a special, bright collar that warns birds.

14) Be careful
your cat might be sleeping under the blanket.

13) Maybe your cat would like some yarn.

14) Be careful when you go on the bed,
your cat might be sleeping under the blanket.

15) Cuddle with your cat.

16) Give your cat a check-up and to make sure
it's nice and healthy.

18) Give your cat lots of water especially in the outside of the house. They like water on shelves and across the ground.

17) Cats love feathers. Make sure your cat has a toy with feathers on it.

18) Cuddle with your cat.

18) Give your cat lots of water options in and outside of the house. They like water on shelves and above the ground.

19) Make sure your cat has a nice cozy bed.
